REMERCIEMENTS

Many individuals around the world have helped to make this International Directory of Canadian Studies a reality. First and foremost, the contact persons from each association and Associate members, and the Secretariats of the associations: Ellen Babby (USA); Leon A. Bagramov (USSR); Louise Bakker (The Netherlands); Daniel Ben-Natan (Israel); Reginald Berry (New Zealand); Giovanni Bonanno (Italy); Judy Collingwood (United Kingdom); Om P. Juneja (India); Béatrice Kowaliczko (Canada); Ginette Kurgan-van Hentenryk (Belgium); Jean-Michel Lacroix (France); Lan Rhenze (People's Republic of China); Angel Lopez (Spain); Michel Martiny (Ireland); Annick Monnerie (France); Satoru Osanai (Japan); Shin Myungsoon (Korea); Bengt Streijffert (Sweden); Roland Vogelsang (Germany). Other Canadianists in countries where the ICCS does not yet have member associations, have also helped: Anna Jakabfi (Hungary); Don Sparling (Czechoslovakia); José A. Fedalto (Brazil); Antonio Carpio (Venezuela); Raziullah Azmi (Pakistan); Longin Pastusiak (Poland); Pranee Thiparat (Thailand).

A very special word of thanks goes to the academic relations officers and staff of the Canadian Embassies, particularly: Walter Larinck (Germany); Michael Hellyer and Vivien Hughes (United Kingdom); Ruth Hayhoe and Zhou Pingjie (China); Patricia Bader-Johnston (Japan).

Several individuals have been involved in data input, translation and text revision: Julie Sévigny-Roy, Raymonde Evans, Linda Jones, Carole Dolan. Their role in the production of the Directory was essential.

Finally, we wish to thank very sincerely Brian Long and Donald R. McPhee, of the Academic Relations Division of External Affairs and International Trade Canada. We have always been able to count on their help, understanding and patience throughout this project.

De nombreuses personnes dans le monde entier ont contribué à faire de ce Répertoire une réalité. Ce sont, d'abord et avant tout, les personnes-ressources dans chacune des associations et chez nos membres associés, ainsi que les secrétariats des associations: Ellen Babby (Etats-Unis); Leon A. Bagramov (URSS); Louise Bakker (Pays-Bas); Daniel Ben-Natan (Israël); Reginald Berry (Nouvelle-Zélande); Giovanni Bonanno (Italie); Judy Collingwood (Royaume-Uni); Om P. Juneja (Inde); Béatrice Kowaliczko (Canada); Ginette Kurgan-van Hentenryk (Belgique); Jean-Michel Lacroix (France); Lan Rhenze (République populaire de Chine); Angel Lopez (Espagne); Michei Martiny (Irlande); Annick Monnerie (France); Satoru Osanai (Japon); Shin Myungsoon (Corée); Bengt Streijffert (Suède) Roland Vogelsang (Allemagne). Plusieurs autres canadianistes nous ont également prêté leur concours, dans les pays où le Conseil international d'études canadiennes ne compte pas encore de membres: Anna Jakabfi (Hongrie); Don Sparling (Tchécoslovaquie); José A. Fedalto (Brésil); Antonio Carpio (Venezuela); Raziullah Azmi (Pakistan); Longin Pastusiak (Pologne); Pranee Thiparat (Thaïlande).

Un grand merci également aux agents des relations universitaires et au personnel des ambassades du Canada, en particulier: Walter Larinck (Allemagne); Michael Hellyer et Vivien Hughes (Royaume-Uni); Ruth Hayhoe et Zhou Pingjie (Chine); Patricia Bader-Johnston (Japon).

Plusieurs personnes ont participé à l'entrée des données, à la traduction et à la révision des textes: Julie Sévigny-Roy, Raymonde Evans, Linda Jones, Carole Dolan. Est-il besoin de souligner combien leur rôle a été important?

Enfin, nous remercions très sincèrement Brian Long et Donald R. McPhee, de la Division des relations internationales en matière d'éducation du ministère des Affaires extérieures et du Commerce extérieur du Canada. Leur collaboration, leur compréhension et, surtout, leur patience nous ont été acquises tout au long de ce projet.

PREFACE

This new edition of the International Directory of Canadian Studies lists the individuals around the world who make Canadian Studies a reality. It revises and considerably augments two 1989 publications of the ICCS: the Directory of Canadianists and the International Directory to Canadian Studies. Like its predecessors it provides information on Canadian Studies centres and programmes, their activities and publications, and lists individual Canadianists in America, Europe, Asia and Australia. It then adds much new information such as telephone numbers, courses taught, research interests, publications, etc. In addition it details bursary and grant programmes and gives short notices on the various Canadian Studies associations and their federation, the International Council for Canadian Studies. In short, it provides everything one needs to find one's way in the world of Canadian Studies.

One cannot but be impressed by the results -- condensed in the pages of this directory -- twenty years of scholarship in different disciplines, using different theoretical and methodological approaches, yet focusing on one common object of study: Canada. Within these pages is documented a community of scholars -- men and women, specialists of history, geography, literature, economics, law, etc. -- who span the boundaries of their own disciplines to engage in true scientific cooperation. As president of the organization that links Canadianists around the world, I am proud of the quality and dynamism of this international community, as reflected in the International Directory of Canadian Studies.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank most sincerely Christian Pouyez, Executive Director of the International Council for Canadian Studies, and his team of collaborators for taking on the difficult task of putting together this directory. I have no doubt that their work will be greatly appreciated and used extensively by Canadianists worldwide.

Le voici, le catalogue des canadianistes du monde entier, le Répertoire international des études canadiennes. Il remplace deux ouvrages publiés par le CIEC en 1989, dont il constitue la version «revue, corrigée et sensiblement augmentée»: le Répertoire des canadianistes et le Répertoire international d'études canadiennes. Comme ses prédécesseurs, il n'informe pas seulement sur les centres et les programmes d'études canadiennes dans le monde entier, leurs activités et leurs publications, mais il offre aussi toutes sortes d'informations utiles concernant les canadianistes des Amériques, d'Europe, d'Asie et d'Australie. On y trouve, en outre, des renseignements détaillés sur les bourses et subventions en études canadiennes, sur les associations des canadianistes et leur fédération, le Conseil international d'études canadiennes, bref, tout ce qui est nécessaire pour trouver son chemin dans le monde des canadianistes.

Le bilan qu'on peut en dégager est impressionnant. Les recherches d'une vingtaine d'années, menées à bien dans des disciplines très variées, traditionnellement séparées sur le plan scientifique par des approches théoriques et méthodologiques différentes, ont convergé pour faire ressortir ce qui leur est commun: l'étude scientifique du Canada. Il s'est constitué ainsi une communauté de chercheurs, femmes et hommes, spécialistes en histoire, géographie, littérature, langue, économie, droit, etc. qui coopèrent de façon étroite, au-delà des limites de leur propre discipline. En tant que président de la fédération qui regroupe les canadianistes du monde entier, le Conseil international d' études canadiennes, je me félicite de la haute qualité et de la vitalité de cette communauté, qui se reflètent dans ce Répertoire qu'on met aujourd'hui à la disposition du public.

Je profite de l'occasion pour présenter mes remerciements les plus sincères à ceux qui ont bien voulu assumer la tâche difficile de la compilation du Répertoire, M. Christian Pouyez, directeur général du Conseil et toute son équipe. Il n'y a pas le moindre doute que leur travail sera grandement apprécié et applaudi par tous ceux qui s'en serviront, les canadianistes du monde entier. Je ne suis que le premier à le faire.

Finally, I wish to thank the Academic Relations Division of External Affairs and International Trade Canada for their assistance, without which this project could not have been realized.

Hans-Josef Niederehe
President, ICCS

Enfin, je tiens à remercier tout particulièrement la Division des relations internationales en matière d'éducation du ministère des Affaires extérieures et du Commerce international du Canada, dont la collaboration a été essentielle à la réalisation de ce projet.

Hans-Josef Niederehe
Président

GENERAL INTRODUCTION / INTRODUCTION GENERALE

This International Directory of Canadian Studies replaces two former publications of the International Council for Canadian Studies: the Directory of Canadianists, compiled by G. Vallières and edited by L. Jones (ICCS, 1989), and the International Directory to Canadian Studies (ICCS, 1989). It provides, in a single publication, all the information contained in these two previous directories, plus a host of new data on teaching and research in Canadian Studies around the world.

The concept of an integrated directory was initially approved by the Board of Directors of the ICCS in May 1989. A workplan and an implementation strategy were developed by the Secretariat of ICCS over the following year. They were approved by the Board of Directors in July 1990; the plan included the appointment of a contact person in each of the sixteen Canadian Studies associations then belonging to the ICCS. The Secretariat would, from then on, work in close collaboration with these contact persons in order to gather the required data for the various chapters. It was hoped, at the outset, that the project could be completed within twelve to fourteen months, for a publication date in early Fall 1991. This estimate proved optimistic, largely because the response to the various questionnaires sent out to individuals, Centres, Associations, Programmes, etc., has been much more positive than anticipated. As a result, the processing of data took a few months longer than originally planned.

This International Directory of Canadian Studies is very much the result of a collective effort on the part of all members of the ICCS, as will be evident from a review of the procedure which was followed for gathering the necessary data:

- Three questionnaires were developed by the ICCS Secretariat in September 1990: one for individual Canadianists, one for Canadian Studies Centres and the third one for Canadian Studies Programmes.

- In October, a draft of these questionnaires was sent to all our contact persons, requesting

Le Répertoire international des études canadiennes remplace et complète deux ouvrages publiés par le Conseil international d'études canadiennes: le Répertoire des canadianistes, compilé par G. Vallières et édité par L. Jones (CIEC, 1989), et le Répertoire international des études canadiennes (CIEC, 1989). Ce nouveau répertoire rassemble, en un seul ouvrage, les mêmes types de renseignements que les répertoires précédents, et il y ajoute quantité d'informations nouvelles sur l'enseignement et la recherche en études canadiennes dans le monde.

L'idée de publier un répertoire intégré des études canadiennes a été discutée et approuvée en principe par le Conseil d'administration du CIEC en mai 1989, et un plan de travail fut mis au point par le Secrétariat au cours de l'année suivante. Le plan était approuvé par le Conseil d'administration en juillet 1990. Il était prévu que chacune des associations d'études canadiennes membres du CIEC nommerait une personne-contact, avec laquelle le Secrétariat du CIEC travaillerait à la collecte de l'information brute nécessaire pour le répertoire. Le projet devait originellement être mené à bien en douze à quatorze mois, et la publication était prévue pour le début de l'automne 1991. Cet échéancier n'a pas été respecté, en grande partie parce que le taux de réponse à nos divers questionnaires a été plus élevé que prévu, et, par conséquent, le traitement des données a pris beaucoup plus de temps.

Ce Répertoire international des études canadiennes est véritablement le résultat d'un effort collectif de la part des membres du CIEC, comme on pourra en juger en examinant la démarche suivie pour recueillir les données:

- Au cours du mois de septembre 1990, le Secrétariat du CIEC a mis au point trois questionnaires: un pour les canadianistes, un pour les centres d'études canadiennes et le troisième pour les programmes d'études canadiennes.

- Un brouillon de ces questionnaires a été envoyé en octobre 1990 à toutes les personnes-contact, suggestions regarding their content and instructions from the Canadian Studies associations regarding delivery of the questionnaires. Associations could choose to photocopy and distribute the questionnaires themselves, or ask the ICCS secretariat to mail them directly.

- On November 20, 1990, the questionnaires were sent to all Canadian Studies associations but two, which had elected to let the ICCS secretariat handle the mailing. Letters and questionnaires were also sent to ICCS Associate members. We also enlisted the help of Academic Relations Officers in Canadian embassies abroad, in those countries where Canadian Studies currently exist.

- Questionnaires were actually mailed by Associations (or the ICCS secretariat) in December 1990 and January 1991.

- From February to May 1991, filled-out questionnaires were received by the secretariat: in some cases, the Association had requested its members to return the questionnaires directly to ICCS; in other cases, the Association collected them and sent them in a bundle to ICCS.

- A few reminders were sent in May 1991, especially to Directors of Centres and Programmes in certain countries where the response rate had been low.

- A very preliminary draft of the main chapters of the International Directory of Canadian Studies was presented to the ICCS Board of Directors at the May-June 1991 Annual Meeting, for information, reactions, suggestions, etc.

- In July 1991, the contact person in each Association was sent a listing of all data pertaining to that Association, its individual members, and the Centres and Programmes of à qui on demandait, d'une part leurs commentaires et suggestions sur les questionnaires, et d'autre part des instructions quant à l'administration des questionnaires. Les associations pouvaient choisir de distribuer elles-mêmes les questionnaires, ou elles pouvaient laisser au Secrétariat du CIEC le soin de le faire.

- Le 20 novembre 1990, un exemplaire des questionnaires était expédié à toutes les associations, sauf deux, qui avaient choisi de laisser le CIEC faire l'expédition. Des lettres étaient également envoyées, au même moment, aux membres associés ainsi qu'aux ambassades du Canada dans les pays où existent des programmes d'études canadiennes.

- L'envoi des questionnaires aux individus et aux Centres et Programmes a été effectué en décembre 1990 et janvier 1991, soit par les Associations, soit par le Secrétariat du CIEC.

- Les questionnaires remplis ont été renvoyés au Secrétariat du CIEC à partir du mois de février, et la plupart avaient été reçus vers la fin du mois de mai. Dans certains cas, l'association avait demandé à ses membres de renvoyer les questionnaires directement au CIEC, et parfois, c'est l'association elle-même qui s'était chargée de la collecte des réponses et de leur envoi au CIEC.

- On envoya quelques rappels en mai 1991, particulièrement aux directeurs des Centres et Programmes des pays où le taux de réponse avait été bas.

- Lors de sa réunion annuelle, en mai 1991, le Conseil d'administration du CIEC eut la possibilité d'examiner et de commenter une version très préliminaire des principaux chapitres du répertoire.

- L'ensemble des données recueillies sur les membres individuels, les Centres et les Programmes d'un pays donné furent envoyées en juillet 1991 à chacune des personnes-contact,

Canadian Studies in the country. Each contact person was requested to check the information and inform the secretariat of mistakes of any kind. Academic Relations Officers were also sent a listing of data concerning the Centres and Programmes with a request to signal errors, omissions, etc.

- Responses to our request for verification of the data were received mainly in October and November of 1991. They were integrated in the data base as they came in, and work proceeded, at the same time, on those chapters which did not require specific input from the associations.

- The last months of 1991 were devoted to translation, final checking and preliminary lay-out of the text.

The International Directory of Canadian Studies is therefore very much the result of a collective effort by all ICCS members to bring together all information pertinent to Canadian Studies around the world.

The directory is divided in twelve (12) chapters, including two indexes. As a rule, we have provided a short introduction to each chapter, explaining its content and the methodology used for compiling and presenting the information. Only a few remarks concerning the overall structure of the directory will therefore be required. The information offered in the directory goes from the general to the specific: the first chapters deal with the larger organisational structures, that is to say the ICCS itself, the Canadian Studies associations and various other organizations. Subsequent chapters list the Canadian Studies Centres and Programmes in Canada and abroad. A very large chapter presents the research, teaching and major publications of individual researchers. A group of chapters is then devoted to Canadian Studies journals, proceedings and directories, to programmes of aid to research, prizes and distinctions, and to recent developments in Canadian Studies in various countries. The last chapter has been designed somewhat as a telephone directory, with entries for all members of Canadian Studies Associations, giving names and addresses and, when available, sex, age, telephone and fax numbers, linguistic competence and membership in Canadian Studies Associations. A subject index and a name index complete the information.

afin qu'elles puissent en vérifier l'exactitude et signaler toutes les erreurs au Secrétariat. Les agents de relations culturelles des ambassades du Canada à l'étranger furent également mis à contribution pour vérifier les données concernant les Centres et les Programmes.

- Les corrections suggérées par nos correspondants furent intégrées à la base de données au fur et à mesure de leur réception, en octobre et novembre 1991. Parallèlement, le Secrétariat complétait les autres chapitres du répertoire, pour lesquels les données étaient déjà disponibles.

- Les derniers mois de 1991 furent consacrés à la vérification, à la traduction et à la mise en page préliminaire du texte.

Cette somme de tous les renseignements disponibles sur les canadianistes du monde entier est donc vraiment le résultat d'un effort collectif, de la part de tous les membres du CIEC.

Le répertoire compte douze (12) chapitres, incluant deux index. En règle générale, chacun des chapitres est précédé d'une introduction précisant le contenu du chapitre et la méthodologie suivie pour le réaliser. On se contentera donc ici de quelques remarques générales sur la structure d'ensemble du répertoire. L'ordonnancement des chapitres a été déterminé en fonction du sujet, pour aller du général au particulier. Ainsi, les premiers chapitres traitent des grandes structures d'organisation, à savoir le CIEC, les Associations d'études canadiennes et les organismes similaires. Viennent ensuite les chapitres sur les Centres et les Programmes d'études canadiennes au Canada et à l'étranger. Le chapitre suivant, très considérable, énumère les domaines de recherche, les cours et les principales publications des canadianistes, pris individuellement. Vient ensuite un groupe de chapitres portant sur les revues, actes et répertoires d'études canadiennes, sur les programmes d'aide à la recherche, sur les prix et distinctions en études canadiennes dans les divers pays membres du CIEC, et sur les perspectives de développement dans quelques pays. Le dernier chapitre a été conçu comme un bottin des canadianistes: y sont énumérés tous les membres individuels des associations membres du CIEC, avec leur adresse, et, chaque fois que l'information était

Although we have endeavoured to make this directory as complete and accurate as possible, we fully realize its many shortcomings. The major one is certainly the fact that a number of scholars did not return their questionnaires and therefore could not be listed in chapter 5, where the most useful information is presented. It is our hope that the second edition of the directory, which will be published in 1994, will present a more accurate picture of the community of Canadianists around the world. Another weakness of the directory is the information related to publications: in some countries, where the roman alphabet is not in use, scholars have sometimes provided translations of the titles of their books or articles, without indicating whether the original work was written in English or in Russian, Chinese or Japanese. We had also hoped to be able to offer a full list of Canadianists, with addresses, age, sex, linguistic competence, telephone and fax numbers. Since that information was requested in the questionnaires prepared for individual Canadianists, we can list this information only for those scholars who have returned the questionnaire. Here again, it is hoped that the next edition will provide more information.

As it is, with all its shortcomings and, no doubt, its many mistakes, for which we apologize, the International Directory of Canadian Studies should prove a useful tool for scholars and for all those, around the world, who share an interest in Canada.

disponible, la date de naissance, le sexe, les numéros de téléphone et télécopie, et les compétences linguistiques. Enfin, un index des sujets et un index des noms complètent le répertoire.

Nous nous sommes efforcés de faire de ce répertoire un instrument aussi exact et complet que possible. Nous sommes toutefois bien conscients de ses limites et des lacunes qu'il comporte. La plus grave de ces lacunes est due au fait que plusieurs canadianistes n'ont pas répondu à notre questionnaire et, par conséquent, ne sont pas inclus au chapitre 5, qui contient l'information la plus riche. Souhaitons que cette lacune soit comblée dans la deuxième édition de ce répertoire, prévue pour 1994. Les renseignements concernant les publications constituent une autre faiblesse de cette première édition. En effet, dans certains pays où l'on n'utilise pas l'alphabet romain, certains chercheurs ont transcrit les titres de leurs ouvrages en français, sans indiquer si l'original était écrit en russe, en chinois ou en japonais. Enfin, nous espérions pouvoir offrir un bottin très complet de tous les canadianistes, incluant l'âge, le sexe, les compétences linguistiques et les numéros de téléphone et de télécopieur. Etant donné que ces informations faisaient partie du questionnaire destiné aux canadianistes, les renseignements ne sont disponibles que pour les chercheurs qui nous ont renvoyé ledit questionnaire.

Quoiqu'il en soit, et malgré ses défauts et ses lacunes, dont nous nous excusons, le présent Répertoire international des études canadiennes devrait s'avérer un instrument de travail utile pour les chercheurs et tous ceux et celles qui s'intéressent au Canada.

The International Council for Canadian Studies (ICCS) is a registered non-profit organization of national and multinational associations devoted to the advancement of Canadian Studies. It was established in 1981 by representatives from Australia and New Zealand, Canada, France, the German-Speaking Countries, Ireland, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States. Since 1981, associations from China, The Netherlands, India, Israel, the Nordic Countries (Denmark, Finland, Norway, Sweden), the USSR and Spain have joined the Council. More than 4,000 scholars belong to these sixteen associations.

The Council is a federation of Canadian Studies associations. Any national or multinational Canadian Studies group, anywhere in the world, may apply for membership. The ICCS has associate members: Canadian Studies centres or organizations which, although not elibible for full membership, benefit from their relation with the Council. Individuals are not eligible for membership in the Council.

The mandate of the ICCS is to promote scholarly study, research, teaching and publication about Canada, in all disciplines and in all countries, and to Organisme sans but lucratif, le Conseil international d'études canadiennes (CIEC) a été créé en 1981 par les associations d'études canadiennes des pays suivants : Australie/Nouvelle-Zélande, Canada, Etats-Unis, France, pays de langue allemande (Allemagne, Autriche, Suisse), Irlande, Italie, Japon et Royaume-Uni. Depuis lors, les Associations d'études canadiennes de la Chine, des Pays-Bas, de l'Inde, d'Israël, des pays nordiques (Danemark, Finlande, Islande, Norvège et Suède), de l'URSS et de l'Espagne sont venues grossir ses rangs. Ces seize associations nationales et plurinationales regroupent aujourd'hui plus de 4 000 canadianistes.

Le Conseil international d'études canadiennes est la fédération des associations nationales et plurinationales d'études canadiennes. Toute autre association du même genre peut demander son adhésion au Conseil. Le CIEC compte par ailleurs des membres associés. Il s'agit de groupements qui ne satisfont pas aux critères d'admissibilité en tant que membres ordinaires, mais qui estiment qu'il est dans leur intérêt de participer aux activités du Conseil. Le CIEC n'accepte pas de membres individuels.

Le CIEC s'est donné pour mission de promouvoir les études, la recherche, l'enseignement et les publications sur le Canada, dans toutes les disciplines et enhance communication among its members in order to facilitate and develop such activities. To this end, the Council organizes international conferences, publishes information material, administers programmes on behalf of governement departments and agencies, and devotes a large proportion of its resources to liaison and communication.

The Council is also responsible for the publication of the International Journal of Canadian Studies and for the administration and adjudication of awards and prizes.

The Executive Council, meeting once a year, is the governing body responsible for developing the policies of the ICCS. It is composed of one representative per member association and the Executive Committee. The latter consists of the president, president-elect, past president and one member-at--large. The Executive Committee conducts the affairs of the organization between annual meetings of the Executive Council. The work of elected members of the Council is supported by a Secretariat located in Ottawa.

The International Council for Canadian Studies publishes an Annual Report, which is available from the Secretariat.

dans tous les pays, et de renforcer les liens entre ses associations membres. A cette fin, le Conseil organise des conférences internationales, publie des documents d'information et des travaux scientifiques, administre divers programmes pour le compte de ministères et d'organismes gouvernementaux, et consacre une part importante de ses ressources aux échanges et à la communication.

Le CIEC publie la Revue internationale d'études canadiennes, qui paraît deux fois l'an. Il est en outre chargé de l'attribution de prix et certificats de mérite en études canadiennes.

Les grandes orientations et le programme d'activités du CIEC sont déterminées par son Conseil exécutif, lequel se compose des membres de son Comité exécutif et d'un représentant de chaque association membre. Le Conseil se réunit une fois l'an. Entretemps, c'est le Comité exécutif, formé du président, du président désigné, du président sortant et d'un membre élu par le Conseil, qui s'occupe des affaires du CIEC avec le concours d'un Secrétariat situé à Ottawa.

Le CIEC publie un Rapport annuel, qu'on peut se procurer en écrivant au Secrétariat.

MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL FOR CANADIAN STUDIES
MEMBRES DU CONSEIL INTERNATIONAL D'ETUDES CANADIENNES

This chapter is divided in two parts: Part I contains brief descriptions of each of the sixteen (16) Canadian Studies associations belonging to the International Council for Canadian Studies. Part II is divided into two Sections. The first deals with ICCS Associate members and the second gives a very brief description of a few other organizations which, although not members of the ICCS, play an active role in promoting Canadian Studies.

The texts in Part I and in Section 1 of Part II were written by the Canadian Studies associations and associate members themselves, with occasional, minor revisions by the ICCS Secretariat. The texts in Section 2 of Part II were written by the Secretariat, based on data provided by the Canadian High Commission in London and the British Association for Canadian Studies.

La matière de ce chapitre est divisée en deux parties: la 1ère partie offre une courte présentation de chacune des seize associations d'études canadiennes membres du Conseil international d'études canadiennes. La IIème partie, elle-même divisée en deux Sections, présente d'une part les membres associés du CIEC et d'autre part, certaines organisations qui, bien qu'elles ne fassent pas partie du Conseil, jouent un rôle important dans l'avancement des études canadiennes.

Les associations d'études canadiennes et les membres associés ont préparé eux-mêmes les textes de présentation de la Ière partie et de la Section 1 de la IIe partie. Dans certains cas, le secrétariat du CIEC a effectué des modifications de nature stylistique. Quant à la dernière Section, elle a été préparée par le secrétariat, à partir de données communiquées par le Haut-Commissariat du Canada en Grande-Bretagne et par l'Association britannique d'études canadiennes.

The Association for Canadian Studies in Australia and New Zealand (ACSANZ) was officially launched at an inaugural conference held at Macquarie University in 1982. It was preceded some two years earlier by the Australian Association for Canadian Studies, established by Peter Crabb (Macquarie University) and Kenneth Wiltshire (University of Queensland). ACSANZ is an interdisciplinary organization which recognizes and encourages interest in Canadian Studies. Support is given to teaching and research in a number of areas, particularly in the social sciences and humanities, and to work of a comparative nature. Members of the Association, now numbering over 170, come from diverse backgrounds and boast a high level of expertise in specific areas. Their work has helped expand the general understanding and appreciation of Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

At the heart of the Association lie the remarkable similarities between Australia and Canada. Though of a different nature and order, the same degree of similarity applies to Canada and New Zealand. This has generated an emphasis on comparative studies, somewhat alleviating the sense of isolation among Canadianists, and has added an important dimension to the study of all three countries. Several times a year, ACSANZ publishes a Newsletter, to keep its members in touch with one another and informed about Canadian issues.

In 1986, ACSANZ took over the Australian-Canadian Studies journal, created in 1983 by a group of Association members at La Trobe University. The journal focuses on the humanities and social sciences, with emphasis on comparative and L'Association d'études canadiennes en Australie et en Nouvelle-Zélande (AECANZ) a été officiellement créée en 1982 lors du congrès qui a réuni des représentants des deux pays à l'Université Macquarie.

L'Association australienne d'études canadiennes, fondée deux ans plus tôt par les professeurs Peter Crabb de l'Université Macquarie et Kenneth Wiltshire de l'Université Queensland, avait ouvert la voie à la création de l'AECANZ. Le changement d'appellation témoigne des liens étroits qui existent entre l'Australie et la Nouvelle-Zélande.

L'Association d'études canadiennes en Australie et en Nouvelle-Zélande est une association interdisciplinaire vouée à la promotion des études canadiennes. Elle appuie l'enseignement et la recherche dans plusieurs domaines, notamment les travaux de nature comparative, plus particulièrement dans les sciences sociales et les humanités. Ses quelque 170 membres sont des spécialistes qui viennent de divers milieux. Ils contribuent par leurs travaux à mieux faire comprendre et apprécier le Canada, l'Australie et la Nouvelle-Zélande.

Ces travaux mettent surtout l'accent sur les nombreuses analogies entre l'Australie et le Canada. Quoique à un degré différent, on peut aussi étendre cette démarche analogique au Canada et à la Nouvelle-Zélande. C'est ainsi que l'Association a interdisciplinary research. It aims to provide a forum for intellectual debate and exchanges of information on Australia, Canada and New Zealand. The journal has been published twice a year since 1987 (Volume 5). Its current editors are Malcolm Alexander and Gillian Whitlock of Griffith University.

The Association's main activity is its biennial conference. As yet, five conferences have been held at the following locations: Macquarie University in Sydney; the University of Canterbury in Christchurch, NZ; Griffith University in Brisbane; the Australian National University in Canberra; and the University of New England in Armidale. Papers from the first two conferences have been published. They are: Theory and Practice in Comparative Studies: Canada, Australia and New Zealand; and Regionalism and National Identity: Multidisciplinary Essays on Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Selected papers from the third conference held at Griffith University on «The Search for New Futures: Issues and Debates in Science and Technology, Cultural Studies, Social and Economic Policy» were published in Volume 4 of Australian-Canadian Studies. There was no set theme for the fourth and fifth conferences.

The Executive Committee is elected every two years at the general meeting of members during the Association's biennial conference.

été amenée à s'intéresser activement aux études comparées, ce qui, d'une certaine façon, a diminué le sentiment d'isolement ressenti par certains canadianistes et a ajouté une dimension importante à l'étude des trois pays. Deux ou trois fois par année, un Bulletin de nouvelles informe les membres sur les activités de l'Association.

En 1986, l'AECANZ a pris en charge la publication de la revue Australian-Canadian Studies, fondée en 1983 par un groupe de chercheurs de l'Université La Trobe. La revue s'intéresse aux humanités et aux sciences sociales et tout particulièrement à la recherche comparative et interdisciplinaire. Elle se veut un forum pour l'échange d'idées et de connaissances sur l'Australie, le Canada et la Nouvelle-Zélande. Depuis le volume 5 (1987), la revue paraît deux fois l'an. Malcolm Alexander et Gillian Whitlock de l'Université Griffith en sont présentement les rédacteurs.

Le congrès biennal constitue l'une des plus importantes activités de l'Association. Cinq congrès ont eu lieu jusqu'à présent -- à l'Université Macquarie à Sydney; à l'Université de Canterbury à Christchurch (N.-Z.); à l'Université Griffith à Brisbane; à l'Université australienne nationale de Canberra; et à l'Université de Nouvelle Angleterre à Armidale. Les communications des deux premiers congrès ont été publiées respectivement dans Theory and Practice in Comparative Studies: Canada, Australia and New Zealand et Regionalism and National Identity: Multidisciplinary Essays on Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Une sélection de textes présentés au troisième congrès, portant sur le thème «The Search for New Futures: Issues and Debates in Science and Technology, Cultural Studies, Social and Economic Policy» ont paru dans le volume 4 de la revue Australian-Canadian Studies. Il n'y avait pas de thème précis pour les quatrième et cinquième congrès.

L'élection du Bureau de direction a lieu tous les deux ans lors de l'assemblée générale des membres tenue dans le cadre du congrès.

Founded in 1973 at Queen's University, the Association for Canadian Studies (ACS) is a pan-Canadian, non-profit organization which seeks to promote a knowledge of Canada at the post-secondary level through teaching, research and publications.

In addition to its primary interest in post-secondary research, the ACS maintains ties with educational establishments at all levels.

A founding member of the International Council for Canadian Studies, the ACS also belongs to the Canadian Federation for the Humanities and the Social Science Federation of Canada.

The Association actively promotes multidisciplinary and comparative endeavours and encourages exchanges and cooperation between the numerous programmes, centres, study groups, institutes and other organizations working in the field of Canadian, Québec and regional studies.

To reach its goals, the ACS pursues a multitude of activities on several fronts. It organizes conferences and seminars; oversees various publications, including conference papers, directories and working documents; administers diverse Canadian Studies assistance programs; administers contracts in its area of specialization; annually presents the ACS Certificates of Merit, etc.

The Association offers individual memberships (regular: $25; student or retired: $15; life membership $400) and institutional memberships ($50).

Fondée en 1973 à l'Université Queen's, l'Association d'études canadiennes (AEC) est un organisme pan-canadien à but non lucratif dont l'objectif est de promouvoir l'enseignement, la recherche et les publications sur le Canada au niveau postsecondaire.

En plus de son intérêt pour la recherche et l'enseignement au niveau postsecondaire, l'Association entretient des liens avec les divers autres niveaux d'enseignement.

Membre fondateur du Conseil international d'études canadiennes, l'AEC est également membre de la Fédération canadienne des études humaines et de la Fédération canadienne des sciences sociales.

L'Association privilégie les perspectives multidisciplinaires et comparées: elle encourage les échanges et la collaboration entre les divers programmes d'études, centres, regroupements, instituts et autres organismes ayant un rapport avec les études canadiennes, québécoises ou régionales.

Pour atteindre les objectifs qu'elle s'est donnés, l'AEC mène de front de multiples activités: organisation de congrès, séminaires; publications diverses, dont les actes des colloques, répertoires et outils de travail; administration de divers programmes de soutien aux études canadiennes; gestion de contrats touchant à son domaine de spécialisation, présentation annuelle de certificats de mérite, etc.

L'adhésion à l'Association est ouverte aux individus et aux organisations. (Membre régulier: 25$; étudiant ou retraité: 15$; membre à vie: 400$; membre institutionnel: 50$).

The Association for Canadian Studies in China (ACSC) was established at an inaugural conference held in December 1984 at the Sichuan Institute of Foreign Languages in Chongqing.

The ACSC is a learned society of Chinese scholars interested in Canada. It encourages research into various aspects of Canadian society and the teaching of related topics in colleges and universities. It also introduces Canada to the Chinese through translations and publications. The Association promotes cultural and academic exchanges and enhances the mutual understanding and traditional friendship between the two countries and their peoples.

The Association organizes biennial conferences and symposia. Through the efforts of the Canadian Studies Centre in Chongqing, the first conference, was jointly sponsored by the Sichuan Institute of Foreign Languages, the Research Institute of American-Canadian Economy of Wuhan University, the Research Institute of Foreign Literatures of the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences, the Western Languages Department of Beijing University and the Guangzhou Institute of Foreign Languages in 1984. During that same conference, the Association's constitution was drafted, and China's first symposium on Canadian Studies was held.

The second conference-symposium took place in August 1986 at Bethune Medical University in Changchun. The third conference was held in August 1988, when the second board of directors was elected for a four-year term. The fourth conference-symposium was co-sponsored with the International Council for Canadian Studies in July 1990 at Beijing University.

Le congrès de fondation de l'Association chinoise d'études canadiennes (ACEC) a eu lieu à l'Institut des langues étrangères de Sichuan à Chongqing en décembre 1984.

L'ACEC est une association dont le but est de regrouper des spécialistes chinois intéressés à la recherche et à l'enseignement sur le Canada ainsi qu'à la traduction et à la publication d'oeuvres canadiennes en chinois. L'Association entend aussi promouvoir les échanges culturels et universitaires entre la Chine et le Canada et renforcer les liens d'amitié qui existent de longue date entre les deux pays.

L'ACEC tient un congrès tous les deux ans. C'est grâce à l'initiative du Centre d'études canadiennes de Chongqing qu'en 1984 le congrès de fondation a été organisé conjointement par l'Institut des langues étrangères de Sichuan, l'Institut d'économie américano-canadienne de l'Université Wuhan, l'Institut des littératures étrangères de l'Académie chinoise des sciences sociales, le département des langues occidentales de l'Université de Beijing et l'Institut des langues étrangères de Guangzhou. La constitution de l'Association a été adoptée lors de ce congrès, à l'occasion duquel s'est aussi tenu le premier symposium sur les études canadiennes en Chine. Sept communications ont alors été présentées et plusieurs autres textes ont été distribués.

Le deuxième congrès a eu lieu en août 1986 à l'Université de médecine Béthune de Changchun. Le troisième a eu lieu au mois d'août 1988; un nouveau Conseil exécutif y a été élu. Les mandats du Conseil exécutif sont de quatre ans. Le quatrième congrès s'est tenu à Beijing, en juillet 1990, parallèlement à la réunion annuelle du Conseil international d'études canadiennes.

At present, the ACSC has approximately 150 members (including institutions) who pay a token membership fee of 5 Chinese yuan per year and receive the Chinese-language Newsletter. The Association and its affiliated centres also publish Chinese translations of Canadian works and compile papers and essays on Canada published in China in book form.

L'ACEC compte environ 150 membres. Les frais d'adhésion sont symboliques (5 yuan) et donnent droit à un Bulletin trimestriel en chinois. L'Association dirige la publication de la série Maple Leaf, traductions en chinois d'oeuvres canadiennes, et regroupe sous forme de livres des articles sur le Canada publiés en Chine.

In Paris, on May 13, 1976, the Association française d'études canadiennes (AFEC) (French Association for Canadian Studies) was created to promote interdisciplinary Canadian Studies in France through the establishment of centres for Canadian Studies. A number of such centres have already been created at the universities of Bordeaux, Dijon, Grenoble, Nantes, Paris I, Paris III, Paris XII, Rouen, Poitiers, Toulouse, Montpellier, Rennes, Strasbourg, Lyon, Aix-en-Provence and Lille.

At the University of Bordeaux, an interdisciplinary studies programme brings together specialists in the fields of political science, English-Canadian and French-Canadian literature and communications whose work relates directly or indirectly to Canada.

The AFEC's major activities include the publication of a Bulletin d'information five times a year (editor: Jean-Michel Lacroix), a directory of association members and a journal, Etudes canadiennes / Canadian Studies, published in June and December (editors: Pierre Spriet and Jean-Michel Lacroix).

The Association also organizes conferences and seminars on recent research in Canadian L'Association française d'études canadiennes (AFEC) a été fondée à Paris le 13 mai 1976 avec comme objectif de promouvoir les études canadiennes pluridisciplinaires en France. C'est l'établissement de centres d'études canadiennes qui permettra le mieux d'atteindre un tel objectif. Certains ont déjà été établis dans les universités de Bordeaux, Dijon, Grenoble, Nantes, Paris I, Paris III, Paris XII, Rouen, Poitiers, Toulouse, Montpellier, Rennes, Strasbourg, Lyon, Aix-en-Provence et Lille.

A l'Université de Bordeaux, par exemple, des spécialistes de plusieurs domaines (sciences politiques, littératures canadienne-française et canadienne-anglaise, communications), directement ou indirectement liés au Canada, coopèrent au sein d'un programme d'études interdisciplinaires.

Parmi les principales activités de l'AFEC, citons la publication régulière du Bulletin d'information (direction : Jean-Michel Lacroix) à raison de cinq numéros par an, d'un annuaire de ses membres et d'une revue intitulée Etudes canadiennes / Canadian Studies, dirigée par Pierre Spriet et Jean-Michel Lacroix (deux livraisons par an: juin et décembre).

L'Association organise également des colloques sur l'état de la recherche dans le domaine des études

Studies, including: La littérature (Paris, October 1979); La démographie historique (Paris, October 1979); Louis Hémon (Brest, November 1980); L'information (Bordeaux, May 1981); Le Canada atlantique (Nantes, October 1982); La sociologie du théâtre (Bordeaux, May 1983); Jacques Cartier (Rennes, April 1984); La ville au Canada (Créteil, Rouen, May 1985); Les minorités et l'Etat (International Conference, Bordeaux, May 1986);. L'homme et la forêt (Dijon, October 1986); L'homme et l'eau (Rouen, 1988); Métropoles en mutation (Créteil-Paris, 1989); L'homme et la montagne (Grenoble-L'Alpe d'Huez, 1990); and Environnement et déchets (Montpellier, 1991).

These meetings help French scholars to keep abreast of recent Canadian research and to exchange views with Canadianists from Canada and other countries.

Membership is open to all interested individuals. Applications should be sent to Jean-Michel Lacroix. Membership fees are: France, 150 F; Canada, $30; and the U.K., £15.

canadiennes. Depuis sa création, l'AFEC a organisé plusieurs rencontres sur: La littérature (Paris, octobre 1979), La démographie historique (Paris, octobre 1979), Louis Hémon (Brest, novembre 1980), L'information (Bordeaux, mai 1981), Le Canada atlantique (Nantes, octobre 1982), La sociologie du théâtre (Bordeaux, mai 1983), Jacques Cartier (Rennes, avril 1984), La ville au Canada (Créteil, Rouen, mai 1985); Les minorités et l'Etat (colloque international, Bordeaux, mai 1986), L'homme et la forêt (Dijon, octobre 1986), L'homme et l'eau (Rouen, 1988), Métropoles en mutation (Créteil-Paris, 1989), L'homme et la montagne (Grenoble-L'Alpe d'Huez, 1990), Environnement et déchets (Montpellier, 1991).

Ces rencontres ont pour but de faire le point sur les recherches récentes faites au Canada à l'intention des spécialistes français. Elles peuvent aussi être l'occasion d'échanges d'information entre Canadiens et canadianistes étrangers.

Tous les intéressés peuvent devenir membres en adressant leur demande à Jean-Michel Lacroix. Frais d'adhésion: France, 150 F; Canada, 30 $; Grande-Bretagne, £15.

On February 24, 1980, Canadianists from the German-Speaking parts of Europe gathered in Gummersbach (Germany) to found the «Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien» (the Association for Canadian Studies in German-Speaking Countries). The assembly consisted of 67 members from the Federal Republic of Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and Denmark.

La «Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien» (l'Association d'études canadiennes dans les pays de langue allemande) a été fondée le 24 février 1980 à Gummersbach (Allemagne). Elle comptait 67 membres fondateurs représentant la République fédérale d'Allemagne, l'Autriche, la Suisse et le Danemark.

Two academics from the German Democratic Republic attended the colloquium as observers.

The Gesellschaft currently includes some 470 members from various disciplines. Besides meetings focused on special fields of study, the annual conference held every February is a highlight of the Gesellschaft's activities.

In 1981, the Gesellschaft published the first issue of Zeitschrift der Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien (two issues per year) under the editorial direction of Kurt Jürgensen and Hans-Josef Niederehe; it also publishes a newsletter, Mitteilungen, edited by Karl Lenz twice a year.

The Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien facilitates the flow of information, communication and exchanges between universities in Germany and Canada. An annual visiting professorship programme (for one term) in various fields of Canadian Studies began in 1983 at the John F. Kennedy Institute for North American Studies, a component of the Free University of Berlin. The programme is funded by the Canadian Government and the Free University of Berlin. Furthermore, a student exchange programme was introduced at various universities, including Berlin and Marburg.

The multinational nature of the Gesellschaft provides opportunities for exchanging ideas and information between «Kanadisten» (Canadianists) in German-speaking countries, thereby creating a broad base for the expansion of Canadian Studies in this part of Europe.

Membership fees include subscriptions to the journal and the newsletter: regular members: DM 70,--; students: DM 35,--.

Deux universitaires de la République démocratique allemande assistaient également à la réunion à titre d'observateurs.

L'association compte présentement quelque 470 membres représentant diverses disciplines. Elle organise des colloques et des rencontres sur des thèmes relatifs aux études canadiennes ainsi qu'un congrès annuel en février.

La revue Zeitschrift der Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien (deux numéros par an publiés, à l'origine, sous la direction de Kurt Jürgensen et Hans-Josef Niederehe) a été lancée en 1981. Mitteilungen, bulletin d'information dirigé par Karl Lenz, paraît également deux fois l'an.

L'un des objectifs de la Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien était de faciliter la diffusion de l'information ainsi que les échanges entre les milieux universitaires allemands et canadiens. A cet égard, une première a eu lieu en 1983 avec la création d'un programme annuel de professeurs invités (pour un semestre), dans des disciplines liées aux études canadiennes, à l'Institut d'études nord-américaines John F. Kennedy de l'Université libre de Berlin. Le gouvernement canadien et l'Université libre de Berlin apportent leur appui à ce programme. De plus, plusieurs universités, dont celles de Berlin et de Marburg, ont institué un programme d'échange d'étudiants.

Le caractère multinational de la Gesellschaft für Kanada-Studien en fait un forum pour l'échange d'idées et de renseignements entre «Kanadisten» (canadianistes) des pays de langue allemande et constitue en quelque sorte les fondations sur lesquelles se bâtissent les études canadiennes dans cette partie de l'Europe.

La cotisation annuelle comprend l'abonnement à la revue et au bulletin. Membres ordinaires : DM 70,--; étudiants : DM 35,--.

The Association of Canadian Studies in Ireland (ACSI) was established in May 1982. Its objectives are to support and encourage the study and understanding of Canada, its culture, history and institutions, and of the connections and parallels between the two countries. In implementing these objectives, the ACSI strives to initiate and support courses on Canadian topics in the universities and third-level colleges, facilitate the exchange of scholars and scholarships between Canada and Ireland, encourage research and develop publications.

The ACSI sponsors an international conference every two years, hosted by one of the universities. In addition, the Association has organized, in each intervening year, a colloquium or seminar with international participation on a Canadian theme. To date the efforts of the ACSI regarding courses and research have focused on history, geography and French literature, with a growing interest in social issues, economics and English literature. The Association's Newsletter, published twice yearly, provides information on conferences and lectures, and includes a growing Book Review section. The papers delivered at conferences have been published in journals specializing in the particular theme discussed, or in special compendiums. Development of publications is one of the Association's current project.

Courses on Canada are now being offered in all the universities and more programmes are under development. This helps nurture a long-lasting interest in Canada, as the graduates of these courses are motivated to pursue Canadian Studies during L'Association irlandaise d'études canadiennes (AIEC) a été fondée en mai 1982. Son but est de favoriser l'étude et la compréhension, en Irlande, de tout ce qui touche à la culture, à l'histoire et aux institutions du Canada, et d'approfondir les rapports et les similitudes qui existent entre les deux pays. Afin de réaliser ces objectifs, l'Association met sur pied des programmes d'études canadiennes dans les universités et autres établissements d'enseignement supérieur. Elle facilite l'échange de spécialistes et de bourses d'études entre le Canada et l'Irlande et encourage la recherche et les publications.

Un congrès international, organisé par l'une des universités d'Irlande, a lieu tous les deux ans. De plus, dans l'intervalle, l'AIEC organise un colloque ou séminaire international sur un thème canadien. Pour ce qui est des programmes d'études et de recherches, les efforts de l'AIEC et de ses membres sont concentrés dans les domaines suivants : histoire, géographie et littérature francophone; d'autres domaines sont en voie de développement : sciences sociales et économiques et littérature anglophone. Le Bulletin de l'AIEC est publié deux fois l'an et fournit des renseignements sur les congrès et les programmes d'études canadiennes; il comprend une importante rubrique de recensions de livres. Les communications présentées aux congrès de l'AIEC paraissent régulièrement dans des revues dont l'orientation s'apparente aux thèmes des congrès ou sont rassemblées dans une publication spéciale. Depuis quelque temps, l'AIEC s'intéresse tout particulièrement au développement des publications sur les études canadiennes.

On offre maintenant des cours axés sur le Canada dans la totalité des universités irlandaises et d'autres programmes sont en préparation, ce qui augure bien pour l'avenir. Il est particulièrement encourageant de constater que de plus en plus d'étudiants travaillent their academic careers. The ACSI is careful to encourage this trend in order to foster the growing interest in Canada now evident in Ireland.

Anyone involved in Canadian Studies may join the Association by paying £5.00 (Irish Funds). Associate membership is available to persons with a general interest in Canadian Studies at a cost of £2.50, and student membership costs £1.00. Any institution may apply and will be accepted at the Executive Council's discretion. Institutional members may delegate representatives to take part in the Association's activities.

sur des sujets canadiens. L'AIEC s'emploie à encourager cette tendance par tous les moyens à sa disposition.

Toute personne activement engagée dans les études canadiennes peut adhérer à l'Association moyennant un droit de £5 irlandaises par année. Le statut de membre associé est également offert à quiconque s'intéresse à ce domaine, moyennant le versement d'une cotisation de £.2.50. Les étudiants doivent acquitter une cotisation de £1.00. Toute institution peut faire une demande d'adhésion et, si elle est acceptée, déléguer des représentants aux diverses activités de l'AIEC.

The Indian Association for Canadian Studies (IACS) was launched at the first conference on Canadian Studies held at the University of Baroda in February 1985. It consists of scholars from universities identified specially for the development of Canadian Studies by the University Grants Commission of India.

The Association's objectives are to promote and encourage teaching, research and publications related to Canadian and Indo-Canadian studies, especially with regard to interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary and comparative approaches. The IACS expects to achieve its goals through the publication of a Newsletter and an inventory of contacts between Indian and Canadian universities, the organization of seminars, workshops and conferences, the publication of a journal and proceedings, and the exchange of teachers and students.

L'Association indienne d'études canadiennes (AIEC) a été fondée lors du premier colloque d'études canadiennes en Inde à l'Université M.S. de Baroda en février 1985. Elle regroupait à l'origine des professeurs des universités désignées par la Commission indienne des subventions universitaires comme centres de développement d'études canadiennes.

Les objectifs de l'Association sont de promouvoir et d'encourager l'enseignement, la recherche et les publications en études canadiennes et indo-canadiennes, tout particulièrement lorsque qu'il s'agit de travaux interdisciplinaires, multidisciplinaires ou comparatifs. C'est par un programme de publications (Bulletin, inventaires de projets entre universités canadiennes et indiennes, revue scientifique, actes de colloques, etc.), l'organisation de séminaires, d'ateliers et de colloques, de même que par les échanges de professeurs et d'étudiants entre les deux pays, que l'Association entend poursuivre ses buts.

The Association has a life membership of 250 academics across the country. With the active support of the Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute, it has persuaded the University Grants Commission to support thirteen Centres/Programmes of Canadian Studies throughoout India. It has organized nine international and a dozen national seminars and conferences on such themes as: Cultural Pluralism and the Notion of Dissent, Regionalism, Women and Society, Intellectual and Cultural Movements in Canada and India, etc.

Besides a Newsletter, published three time a year, the IACS also publishes an annual Journal with book reviews.

Membership in the IACS is open to all academic researchers and other individuals and institutions interested in Canadian and Indo-Canadian studies.

L'Association compte 250 membres à vie, répartis dans tout le pays. Avec l'aide de l'Institut indo-canadien Shastri, l'Association a réussi à convaincre la «University Grants Commission» de reconnaître et de financer treize centres/programmes d'études canadiennes, situés dans diverses régions du pays. L'Association a organisé neuf congrès internationaux, et une douzaine de séminaires et de congrès nationaux, sur des thèmes tels que le pluralisme culturel et la dissidence, le régionalisme, les femmes et la société, les mouvements intellectuels et culturels au Canada et en Inde, etc.

Outre un Bulletin de nouvelles, qui est publié trois fois par an, l'Association publie aussi une Revue annuelle, qui comprend une importante section de compte-rendus de livres.

Les universitaires et les chercheurs, tout comme les personnes et les organisations intéressés aux études canadiennes et indo-canadiennes peuvent adhérer à l'Association.

The Israel Association for Canadian Studies (IACS) was founded in November 1985 in the aim of encouraging Canadianists to intensify and expand their teaching and researching of Canada and Canadian society, culture, politics, history and geography. The Association has over 60 members, including researchers and students from universities and research centres and citizens representing all areas of the Israeli economy.

L'Association d'études canadiennes en Israël (AECI) a été fondée en novembre 1985 dans le but d'encourager les canadianistes du pays à intensifier et à élargir leur enseignement et leur recherche sur le Canada, sa société, sa culture, son histoire, sa géographie et sa politique. Elle compte plus d'une soixantaine de membres dans les universités et les centres de recherches et aussi dans plusieurs autres secteurs.

The Israel Association for Canadian Studies is governed by a nine-member Executive Committee. The President is Professor Arie Shachar and the Director (and IACS delegate to the Executive Committee of the International Council) is Daniel Ben-Natan, both of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. The other members of the Executive Committee are: Prof. Ruth Amossi (Tel Aviv University), Dr. Zachariah Kay, Prof. Fred Lazin (Ben Gurion University), Prof. Richard Sherwin (Bar Ilan University), Prof. Gabi Weiman (University of Haifa) and Alan Zysblatt. Thus, five of the seven institutions of higher learning in Israel are represented on the Executive Committee. (The other two are Technology and Exact Sciences.)

In May 1986, the IACS was accepted as the thirteenth member of the International Council for Canadian Studies, and has since played an active role in the progress of this important organization.

The first annual conference of the Israel Association for Canadian Studies was held on April 27, 1987. Four Canadian professors participated; the different sessions covered a wide range of subjects on which joint, comparative research is being conducted. The proceedings of the conference were published under the title: Canada-Israel: Comparative Perspectives (ed. by Arie Shachar). In June 1987, the IACS organized a session on «Planning Systems and Urban Issues» at the International Canadian Studies Conference in Hamilton, Canada. Three Canadian and three Israeli scholars reported on joint, comparative research projects.

The second annual conference of the IACS was held on May 11 and 12, 1988. The sessions focused on: Organizational Change in the National Context; Women's Careers in Israel and Canada; Social Organizations in Canada and Israel; Ethnicity and Culture; Communications and the Media in Canada and Israel; Dependency on the USA: Canada and Israel; and French-Canadian Literature and Poetry.

The IACS co-sponsored a conference in December 1988 in Jerusalem on «Racial Incitement and the Law: Canada-Israel», with a major delegation of professors of Law and jurists from Canada. It also co-sponsored a plenary and regular session at the June 1989 International Conference of Canadian Studies in Québec City. The plenary discussed Canadian La gestion de l'Association d'études canadiennes en Israël est assurée par un comité exécutif de neuf personnes. Le Président de l'AECI est le Professeur Arie Shachar, et le directeur, qui est également le délégué officiel de l'Association auprès du Conseil exécutif, est Daniel Ben-Natan; tous deux sont5 de l'Université hébraïque de Jérusalem. Les autres membres du comité exécutif sont le professeur Ruth Amossi (Université de Tel Aviv), le Dr. Zachariah Kay, le professeur Fred Lazin (Université Ben Gourion), le professeur Richard Sherwin (Université Bar Ilan), le professeur Gabi Weiman (Université de Haïfa) et Alan Zysblatt. Cinq des sept institutions d'enseignement supérieur sont donc représentées au sein du comité exécutif.

L'Association est devenue le treizième membre du Conseil international d'études canadiennes en mai 1986 et depuis, elle participe activement aux activités de cet important organisme.

Le premier colloque annuel de l'AECI s'est tenu en avril 1987 avec la participation de quatre universitaires canadiens. Les travaux ont porté sur des sujets sur lesquels des recherches comparatives sont en cours. Les actes de ce colloque ont été publiés sous le titre Canada-Israel: Comparative Perspectives (dir. : Arie Shachar). En 1987, l'Association a activement participé au congrès international d'études canadiennes à Hamilton, Canada, en mettant sur pied un atelier sur les recherches comparatives en études urbaines.

Le second colloque, qui s'est tenu en mai 1988, a porté sur les sujets suivants : changement organisationnel et contexte national; les carrières des femmes au Canada et en Israël; les organismes sociaux; ethnicité et culture; communications et média au Canada et en Israël; la dépendance vis-à-vis les Etats-Unis; la littérature canadienne-française.

L'AECI a collaboré à l'organisation, en décembre 1988 à Jérusalem, d'un congrès portant sur le thème: «Racial Incitement and the Law: Canada-Israel». Une importante délégation de professeurs de droit et de juristes canadiens participèrent à ce congrès. L'Association a également collaboré à l'organisation, en 1989, d'une séance plénière et d'une séance parallèle au Congrès international d'études Studies as Comparative Studies, while the regular session dealt with Women in Authority.

The third annual Conference of the IACS was held in conjunction with the Programme of Canadian Studies of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem on the theme: Continuity and Change: Comparative Perspectives on Canadian Society and Culture (June 10-12, 1990).

The largest centre for Canadian Studies in Israel is located at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem where the Programme of Canadian Studies, cosponsored by the Government of Canada and Ralph and Roz Halbert of Toronto, is completing its fourteenth year of operation. The Programme offers interactive study and research in several major disciplines, ranging from Canadian literature and history through to anthropology, political science, geography, economics and law. The Programme's major areas of activity involve: visiting professors from Canada; library facilities; joint research projects; academic conferences; publications; public lecture series; and faculty enrichment.

The major project of the IACS for 1992 is to host the Annual Meeting of the International Council for Canadian Studies as part of Canada Week activities centred around an international Canadian Studies conference scheduled for May 17-22, 1992.

The general theme of the conference is The Economy, Society and Culture of Canada and an international call for papers will be issued. In addition to the general conference, three Symposia will be held on the following topics:

-the public sector under declining resources, changing ideologies and innovative technologies;
-constitutional reforms in Canada; and
-economic restructuring, human settlement systems and the environment.

canadiennes de Québec. La plénière portait sur Les études canadiennes comme études comparées, et l'autre séance sur Les femmes et l'autorité.

C'est du 10 au 12 juin 1990 qu'a eu lieu, conjointement avec le Programme d'études canadiennes de l'Université hébraïque de Jérusalem, le Congrès annuel de l'AECI, sur le thème: Continuity and Change: Comparative Perspectives on Canadian Society and Culture.

C'est à l'Université hébraïque de Jérusalem que se trouve, depuis dix ans, le principal programme d'études canadiennes en Israël, parrainé par le gouvernement canadien et par Ralph et Roz Halbert, de Toronto. Il s'agit d'un programme d'enseignement et de recherche interdisciplinaire incluant la littérature, l'histoire, l'anthropologie, les sciences politiques, l'économie et le droit. Le programme s'occupe tout particulièrement d'organiser des visites de professeurs canadiens, de développer des collections pour les bibliothèques, de recherches conjointes, de conférences, de publications et du perfectionnement des canadianistes.

Le principal projet de l'AIEC en 1992 sera l'organisation de la réunion annuelle du Conseil international d'études canadiennes, à Jérusalem. Cette réunion sera étroitement intégrée à une Semaine du Canada, dont le point culminant sera un Congrès international d'études canadiennes, du 17 au 22 mai.

Le thème général du Congrès, pour lequel un appel général de propositions a été lancé, sera: Le Canada: Economie, Société et Culture. Parallèlement au Congrès principal, se tiendront trois Colloques portant sur les thèmes suivants:

-le secteur public dans un contexte de ressources décroissantes, d'idéologies en changement et de technologies nouvelles
-les réformes constitutionnelles au Canada
-restructuration économique, modèles d'établissement et environnement.

ITALY / ITALIE

In the past fourteen years, great achievements have been made in promoting Canadian Studies in Italy. The Italian Association for Canadian Studies is currently very active, with about 200 members committed to the advancement of Canadian Studies courses in no less than twenty Italian universities. Professor Dotoli, of Bari University, is the current president of the Association.

The Association was founded in 1979, and has since organized eight international symposia (Bologna, 1977, Pisa, 1978, Urbino, 1979, Messina Taormina, 1981, Caltagirone Piazza Armerina, Bari, 1985, Catania, 1988, Torre Canne, 1990). It has also organized a national conference (Genova, 1987) and some local seminars.

The Association's policy of promoting Canadian Studies at the university level resulted in four interdisciplinary seminars (Roma, 1984, Catania, 1985, Torino, 1986, Giardini-Naxos, 1987) for researchers and professors from all over Italy, each focusing on a specific topic but covering different disciplines. Canadian specialists offered one-week courses at the in-residence seminars, which were considered extremely useful by all the participants.

The Association is currently organizing the 9th International Symposium on Canadian Studies: Metropoli a Confronto, from April 23 to 25, 1992, in Milan. Canadian academics and writers will be invited, together with numerous guests from Italy and the world-over.

At present, membership fees are L.40.000. The Italian Association for Canadian Studies sponsors its own multi-disciplinary journal, Rivista di Studi Canadesi, open to contributions by Italian and foreign scholars. It is a yearly journal, with three issues published to date (1988-1990). An updated

Au cours des quatorze dernières années, les études canadiennes en Italie ont progressé à grands pas. L'Association italienne d'études canadiennes est maintenant très active et compte environ 200 membres qui dispensent des cours d'études canadiennes dans pas moins de vingt universités italiennes. Le professeur Dotoli, de l'Université de Bari, est actuellement président de l'Association.

Depuis sa fondation en 1979, l'Association a organisé huit conférences internationales (Bologne, 1977, Pise, 1978, Urbino, 1979, Messine Taormina, 1981, Caltagirone Piazza Armerina, Bari, 1985, Catane, 1988, Torre Canne, 1990). Elle a également organisé une conférence nationale (Gênes, 1987) et quelques conférences locales.

Afin de promouvoir les études canadiennes dans les universités, l'Association a encouragé la tenue de quatre conférences thématiques interdisciplinaires (Rome, 1984, Catane, 1985, Turin, 1986, Giardini-Naxos, 1987) auxquelles ont participé des chercheurs et des professeurs de toute l'Italie. Des spécialistes du Canada ont donné des cours d'une semaine dans le cadre de ces conférences; tous les participants ont estimé ces cours très utiles.

L'Association organise actuellement la neuvième conférence internationale en études canadiennes, intitulée Metropoli a Confronto, qui aura lieu du 23 au 25 avril à Milan. Des professeurs et écrivains canadiens seront invités, de même que de nombreux spécialistes italiens et du reste du monde

A l'heure actuelle, les droits d'adhésion sont de 40 000 lires. L'Association italienne d'études canadiennes publie sa propre revue multidisciplinaire, Rivista di Studi Canadesi, à laquelle contribuent les chercheurs italiens et étrangers. Il s'agit d'une revue annuelle et à ce jour, trois directory, entitled Repertorio bibliografico degli studi canadesi in Italia, is in preparation.

The Association publishes a bi-annual newsletter, Studi Canadesi, which is sent free of charge to all its members. The Centro di Studi of the University of Messina, together with the Italian Association for Canadian Studies, has published an index of the Canadian books and journals in its library, Canadiana: studio bibliografico.

The Italian Association for Canadian Studies also works in cooperation with three Centri di Studi sul Canada, in Messina, Bologna, and Pisa-Milano, and a Centro di Studi Quebecchesi.

Up to now, Canadian Studies were confined to the university level. One of the Association's objectives is to stimulate interest in Canadian Studies at the senior secondary school level, where little or nothing has been done to promote Canadian culture. In addition, the Executive Council considers it essential to seek financial support from the private sector, although most funds are still provided by the Canadian government and research funds.

Among the Association's greatest achievements are the many university courses now available on Canadian Studies in all disciplines, the numerous articles and books written on Canadian Studies, and the clearer image of Canadian cultural, social and political affairs in the Italian cultural context.

numéros sont parus (1988-1990). Une version à jour du répertoire des études canadiennesen Italie est en cours de préparation et paraîtra sous le nom de Repertorio bibliografico degli studi canadesi in Italia.

L'Association publie aussi un bulletin semestriel, Studi Canadesi, distribué gratuitement à tous les membres. Le Centro di studi de l'Université de Messine, en collaboration avec l'Association d' études canadiennes, a publié un index des livres et revues canadiens qu'elle conserve dans sa bibliothèque, sous le titre Canadiana: studio bibliografico.

L'Association italienne d'études canadiennes collabore également avec quatre Centri di Studi sul Canada, à Messine, Pise, Milan et Bologne, et avec un Centro di Studi Quebecchesi.

Jusqu'à maintenant, les activités en études canadiennes se concentrent dans les universités, mais l'un des objectifs de l'Association est de stimuler l'intérêt pour les études canadiennes dans les écoles secondaires, où pratiquement rien n'est fait pour promouvoir la culture canadienne. En outre, le comité exécutif estime essentiel de solliciter le soutien financier du secteur privé, bien que la plupart du financement provienne actuellement du gouvernement canadien et des fonds de recherche.

Parmi les grandes réalisations de l'Association, mentionnons les nombreux cours en études canadiennes dispensés dans le cadre de toutes les disciplines universitaires, les divers articles et volumes publiés sur les études canadiennes et, finalement, une perception plus précise des frontières culturelles, sociales et politiques canadiennes dans le contexte culturel italien.

The Japanese Association for Canadian Studies (JACS) was established in Tokyo in 1977 on the centenary of the first Japanese immigration to Canada. Since then, the combined efforts of Japanese scholars and visiting Canadian academics have led to Canadian Studies activities throughout Japan.

The purpose of the JACS is to promote Canadian Studies research, teaching and publishing in Japan. Its major activities are annual conferences, and publication of a Newsletter (three times a year) and the Annual Review of Canadian Studies. The Association has four branches: Hokkaido, Kanto, Chubu and Kansai. Each branch holds several meetings a year and the Hokkaido and Kansai branches publish their own newsletters twice a year.

At present, over 250 members, university teachers, research fellows of institutes, graduate students, journalists and other individuals belong to the Association. Areas of interest focus on history and the social sciences. Lately, however, there has been an increasing interest, especially among new members, in the humanities and natural sciences. In 1982, some members of the JACS interested in literature organized the Canadian Literary Society of Japan, which works closely alongside the Association.

In 1979, the JACS helped organize the Japan-Canada Conference to commemorate 50 years of formal diplomatic relations between the two countries. In 1981, it published Chronology of Canadian History. In October 1987, a hardcover collection of research papers entitled Issues of Canadian Studies was published and presented to all the members. In order to encourage members in their research, the Research Award in Canadian Studies was created the C'est en 1977, année du centenaire de la première immigration japonaise au Canada, qu'a été fondée l'Association japonaise d'études canadiennes (AJEC). Depuis, plusieurs établissements d'enseignement ont commencé à offrir des programmes d'études canadiennes grâce aux efforts conjoints d'universitaires japonais et canadiens.

Le but premier de l'Association est de promouvoir l'enseignement, la recherche et les publications dans le domaine des études canadiennes au Japon. Entre autres activités, l'Association tient un colloque annuel et publie un Bulletin trois fois l'an ainsi que la Revue annuelle des études canadiennes. Elle compte quatre chapitres régionaux : Hokkaido, Kanto, Chubu et Kansai. Chacun organise quelques rencontres par année; les chapitres de Hokkaido et de Kansai publient leur propre bulletin d'information semestriel.

L'AJEC compte présentement parmi ses membres plus de 250 universitaires, chercheurs, étudiants et journalistes. L'histoire et les sciences sociales ont été jusqu'ici leurs principaux champs d'intérêt. On note toutefois un intérêt accru pour les humanités et les sciences naturelles, surtout chez les nouveaux adhérents. En 1982, des membres de l'Association ont mis sur pied la Société littéraire canadienne au Japon, qui a des liens étroits avec l'Association.

En 1979, pour commémorer cinquante années de relations diplomatiques entre le Japon et le Canada, l'Association a collaboré à l'organisation de la Conférence Japon-Canada. En 1981, elle a publié Chronologie de l'histoire du Canada. En octobre 1987, elle a publié une collection d'articles sous le titre général: Questions d'études canadiennes; un exemplaire en a été offert à tous les membres. Pour promouvoir la recherche en études canadiennes, une

The Association for Canadian Studies in The Netherlands (ACSN), «Studiegenootschap Canada», was founded on February 1, 1985, in The Hague. It currently has 150 members.

The Association's aim is to promote, support and coordinate teaching and research in Canadian Studies, in the Netherlands, for all academic disciplines within the humanities and the social sciences. It seeks to encourage cooperation between Dutch and foreign experts in Canadian Studies.

The Association's first seminar, on the theme «Canadian Society - A Mosaic?», was held in Amersfoort in October 1986. The seminar's proceedings were published in issue No. 3 of the series Canada Cahiers under the title: Canadian Mosaic - Essays on Multiculturalism (eds.: A.J. Fry and Ch. Forceville, 1988).

The ACSN organized the first «All-European Canadian Studies Conference», held in October 1990 in The Hague. The conference theme was «Canada on the Threshold of the 21st L'Association d'études canadiennes aux Pays-Bas (AECP-B) ou «Studiegenootschap Canada» a été fondée le 1er février 1985 à La Haye. Elle réunit maintenant près de 150 membres.

Le but premier de l'organisme est de promouvoir, d'appuyer et de coordonner l'enseignement et la recherche sur les études canadiennes dans les Pays-Bas, dans toutes les disciplines relevant des humanités et des sciences sociales. Elle encourage la coopération entre les canadianistes néerlandais et ceux de l'étranger dans le domaine des études canadiennes.

Son premier colloque a eu lieu à Amersfoort en octobre 1986 sur le thème «Canada: une mosaïque?». Le no 3 de la série Cahiers Canada, paru en 1988, contient les communications qui y furent présentées.

The Nordic Association for Canadian Studies (NACS) was formally founded on May l, 1984, at the Aarhus Canadian Studies Conference in Denmark. The NACS is made up of Canadianists from Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden.

The Association's aim is to stimulate scholarly interest in Canada among the Nordic countries and to develop contacts with organizations and individuals, in Canada and elsewhere, who are involved in Canadian Studies. The NACS' 190 members represent most academic disciplines and use their Association as a forum for ideas and information. The Association issues a Newsletter twice a year and publishes scholarly books in the NACS/ANEC Canadian Studies Text Series.

Le 1er mai 1984, lors d'un colloque d'études canadiennes à Aarhus au Danemark, l'Association nordique d'études canadiennes (ANEC) voyait officiellement le jour. L'ANEC réunit des canadianistes de Norvège, du Danemark, de Suède et de Finlande.

L'ANEC s'est donné pour but de promouvoir l'intérêt pour le Canada dans les pays nordiques et d'établir des contacts avec des Canadiens ainsi que des personnes et des organismes d'autres pays intéressés aux études canadiennes. L'Association, dont les membres proviennent d'à peu près toutes les disciplines universitaires, sert de lieu de ralliement pour ses quelque 200 membres et de forum pour l'échange d'idées et d'information. L'ANEC publie un Bulletin semestriel et des ouvrages scientifiques dans la série Textes d'études canadiennes de l'ANEC/NACS.

National subcommittees in Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden organize Canadian Studies lectures and seminars.

Every three years, the NACS holds a major Canadian Studies conference: a conference at the University of Lund (August 1987); the NACS triennial conference in Oslo, Norway (August 1990); and an upcoming conference at the University of Turku, Finland (August 1993).

At the General Meeting, held during the Oslo Canadian Studies Conference in August 1990, the four founding members of the Executive Board -- Jørn Carlsen (DK), Per Seyersted (N), Bengt Streijffert (S) and Tuomo Laitinen (SF) -- were re-elected for a new three-year term.

Des sous-comités nationaux ont été établis au Danemark, en Finlande, en Norvège et en Suède. Ils s'occupent tout particulièrement d'organiser des séminaires et des conférences.

L'Association tient un congrès général à tous les trois ans. Le premier a eu lieu à l'Université de Lund en Suède, en août 1987. Le second a eu lieu à l'Université d'Oslo en Norvège, en août 1990. Le prochain se tiendra à l'Université de Turku en Finlande, en août 1993.

A son assemblée générale de 1990, lors du Congrès d'Oslo, les membres ont réélu au Conseil d'administration les quatre membres fondateurs, Jørn Carlsen (DK), Per Seyersted (N), Bengt Streijffert (S) et Tuomo Laitenen (F).

The growing interest in Canadian Studies among Spanish university professors and professionals from various fields led to the organization of an Interdisciplinary Congress on Canadian Studies in Madrid, in 1988. The success of this meeting prompted the creation of a Spanish Association for Canadian Studies (Associación Española de Estudios Canadienses, AEEC). In August 1990, the AEEC became a member of the ICCS.

At present, the Association has 154 members in 20 Spanish universities and universities in six other countries including Canada. Other members belong to various professional institutions.

L'intérêt grandissant pour les études canadiennes parmi les professeurs des universités espagnoles et les professionnels de diverses institutions permirent l'organisation à Madrid, en 1988, d'un colloque pluridisciplinaire sur les études canadiennes. Le succès de ce congrès conduisit les organisateurs à la création de l'Association Espagnole d'Etudes Canadiennes (Associación Española de Estudios Canadienses, AEEC). En août 1990, l'AEEC était acceptée comme membre de plein droit par le CIEC.

L'AEEC compte actuellement 154 membres appartenant à 20 universités espagnoles différentes et à des universités de six autres pays, dont le Canada. L'AEEC compte aussi des membres appartenant a différentes institutions professionnelles autres qu'universitaires.

The objectives of the Association are to: develop interdisciplinary Canadian Studies; promote research and publications on Canadian subjects; encourage the exchange of knowledge, research and publications among members; establish international relations with other Canadian Associations; promote Canadian activities in Spanish society; develop agreements between Canadian and Spanish universities; and cultivate the interest among students of Spanish universities in specializing in Canadian Studies.

The Association's activities are to: periodically organize international congresses (as yet three, have been held: Madrid 1988, Sitges 1989 and Madrid 1991); sponsor artistic exhibitions, local seminars, movies, conferences etc.; invite Canadian personalities and artists to visit Spain; publish a journal of Canadian Studies (Revista Española de Estudios Canadienses), a bulletin on national and international news related to Canadian Studies (forthcoming) and a bibliographical bulletin about the activities, conferences seminars and publications of its members (forthcoming); translate Canadian poetry and short stories from French and English to Spanish; catalogue bibliographical Canadian collections in Spain; award an annual prize for Canadian Studies; provide general information about Canada; and assist in the selection of a number of fellowships for research in Canada.

Annual fees: students, 2000 ptas; members, 3000 ptas.; institutions, 6000 ptas. The annual fee includes subscriptions to the Journal, Newsletter and Bulletins.

Les buts de l'AEEC sont: la promotion des études canadiennes interdisciplinaires; la recherche et la publication sur des sujets canadiens; l'échange de connaissances, recherches et publications entre les membres de l'AEEC; l'établissement de relations internationales avec d'autres associations de canadianistes; le développement des activités canadianistes dans la société espagnole; la conclusion d'accords de coopération entre les universités espagnoles et canadiennes; favoriser l'intérêt envers les études canadiennes chez les jeunes universitaires espagnols et favoriser leur spécialisation ultérieure.

Les activités de l'AEEC sont les suivantes: organisation périodique de colloques et de congrès nationaux et internationaux (Madrid 1988, Sitges 1989 et Madrid 1991); soutien aux activités artistiques, séminaires locaux, cinéma, conférences etc.; faciliter la venue en Espagne de personnalités canadiennes pour faire connaître aux futurs canadianistes l'art, la culture et la civilisation de leur pays; publication d'une revue d'études canadiennes (Revista Española de Estudios Canadienses); publication d'un bulletin de nouvelles nationales et internationales concernant le Canada; publication d'un répertoire d'activités, conférences, séminaires et publications des membres de l'AEEC; traduction de récits et poèmes canadiens; attribution annuelle d'un prix sur les études canadiennes; la participation à sélection des candidats aux bourses octroyées par le Canada; l'information générale sur le Canada.

Cotisations: étudiants, 2000 ptas; membres, 3000 ptas; institutions, 6000 ptas. La cotisation comprend l'abonnement à la Revue et aux bulletins.

The Soviet Association for Canadian Studies was founded in September 1989 at the instigation of the Canadian Studies Department of the Institute of the USA and Canada - a research organization within the Academy of Sciences of the USSR. As the nucleus for the future Association, the 15 researchers of the Department spent a great deal of time and effort uniting fellow Canadianists scattered throughout the country's different academic organizations. Diplomats, writers and journalists were also invited to join.

Because of the geographic and economic similarities between the USSR and Canada, interest was widespread. Membership grew quickly. Today, the Association has 200 members, and continues to grow. By 1991, the SACS had regional branches in the Ukrainian cities of Kiev and Chernivtsi, in the remote Siberian republic of Yakutia, in Murmansk (Northern Russia), and in the Republic of Georgia. There are also prospects of creating regional branches in Armenia, Byelorussia and Azerbaidjan.

The goals of SACS are to:

- promote economic, political, social and cultural studies of Canada within the USSR;
- inform the Soviet people of important events in Canadian public life;
- create opportunities for exchanges between Canadianists in the Soviet Union and in other countries; and
- promote the advancement of economic, scientific and cultural ties between the two countries.

In November 1989, in cooperation with the ICCS, the Association organized a seminar in Moscow entitled «Canada - USSR: Common Problems and Prospects». The Association's first international conference, The National and Ethnic Problems in Canada and the USSR, took place July 2-5, 1991 in L'Association soviétique d'études canadiennes a été fondée en septembre 1989, à l'initiative du département d'études canadiennes de l'Institut des U.S.A. et du Canada, qui fait partie de l'Académie des sciences de l'URSS. Les quinze chercheurs du département ont consacré beaucoup de temps et d'énergie à rassembler au sein de l'Association leurs collègues des diverses régions et institutions du pays, ainsi que des diplomates, écrivains et journalistes intéressés à l'étude du Canada.

En raison des caractères communs aux deux pays, la création de l'Association suscita beaucoup d'intérêt, et les adhésions se multiplièrent rapidement. A l'heure actuelle, l'Association a quelque 200 membres et le recrutement continue. Des filiales régionales existent aujourd'hui en Ukraine, à Kiev et Chernivtsi, dans la lointaine république de Yakoutia, à Mourmansk, et dans la république de Géorgie. D'autres filiales seront bientôt crées en Arménie, en Biélorussie et en Azerbaïdjan.

Les objectifs de l'ASEC sont:

- de favoriser le développement des études économiques, politiques, sociales et culturelles sur le Canada au sein de l'URSS.
- de renseigner la population soviétique sur les aspects les plus importants de la société canadienne.
- de promouvoir les échanges entre les canadianistes d'URSS et ceux des autres pays.
- de favoriser l'établissement de liens économiques, scientifiques et culturels entre les deux pays.

L'Association a organisé à Moscou, en novembre 1989, un séminaire intitulé: Canada-URSS: Problèmes et perspectives. Elle a également organisé à Chernivtsi, en Ukraine, un Congrès international sur le thème: Problèmes ethniques et nationaux au Canada et en URSS (2-5 juillet 1991). Outre les

In response to the growing academic interest in Canada, the British Association for Canadian Studies (BACS) was created in 1975. It now has almost 500 individual members and over 100 institutional members.

Its aim is to foster teaching and research on Canada by locating study resources in Britain, facilitating travel and exchange schemes for professorial staff, and ensuring that the expertise of Canadian scholars who visit the United Kingdom is put to effective use. From time to time, the Association issues grants to permit British academics to travel to and perform research in Canada.

The Association's two publications are the British Journal of Canadian Studies, edited by Colin Nicholson and published semi-annually, and the Newsletter, edited by Chris Rolfe and issued three times a year. A conference is convened annually; the 1992 meeting will be held at the Queen's University

Un intérêt accru pour les études sur le Canada au Royaume-Uni a conduit à la formation de la «British Association for Canadian Studies» (BACS) (Association britannique d'études canadiennes) en 1975. Elle compte maintenant 500 membres individuels et plus de 100 membres institutionnels.

Son but est d'encourager l'enseignement et la recherche sur le Canada en déterminant les ressources disponibles au pays, en facilitant les voyages et les échanges d'enseignants et en tirant profit des connaissances et de l'expérience d'universitaires canadiens en visite au Royaume-Uni. A l'occasion, l'Association accorde des subventions à des universitaires britanniques afin de leur permettre de se rendre au Canada pour y effectuer des recherches.

L'Association publie semi-annuellement le British Journal of Canadian Studies, sous la direction de Colin Nicholson, ainsi que le Newsletter, dirigé par Chris Rolfe et qui paraît trois fois l'an. Elle organise aussi un congrès annuel; celui de 1992 se tiendra à la Queen's University of Belfast conjointement of Belfast in conjunction with the conference of the Association for Canadian Studies in Ireland.

The BACS works through special interest groups in architecture, business and economic studies, Francophone Canada, geography, history, law, literature, curriculum development and social policy. These groups organize seminars and participate in the annual conference, and are responsible for representing their field of teaching and research in the Association's affairs.

In addition, there are two (2) other groups, the Library and Resources Group, and the Canada in Schools Group concerned with introducing Canadian Studies into the school curricula. Other groups will probably join this list. In particular, proposals for a Media and Communications Group and a Politics Group are currently under review.

Information on the groups' activities can be obtained from the BACS office at Quebec House, 50, Pall Mall, London, SW1Y 5JH.

Several universities have developed programmes of Canadian Studies. At the University of Edinburgh's Centre for Canadian Studies, under the direction of Ged Martin, courses are offered on Canadian geography, history, politics, economics and sociology. The Centre is funded jointly by the University and the Foundation for Canadian Studies in the United Kingdom. Funding from the Government of Alberta supports the Alberta Visiting Fellowships. Edinburgh has major library holdings on Canada.

Under the chairmanship of Donald Lee, Leeds University is a Regional Canadian Study Centre. Instruction on Canada includes geography, geology, history, international relations, politics, law, literature, science and technology. The Foundation for Canadian Studies in the United Kingdom provides travel grants to help academic staff or postgraduate students make short study visits to Canada. From time to time, Canadian conferences and seminars are held.

avec le congrès annuel de l'Association irlandaise d'études canadiennes.

Le travail de l'Association s'accomplit aussi par le biais de groupes thématiques. Parmi ceux-ci, huit (8) sont des groupes de recherche dont les activités touchent l'architecture, les sciences économiques et l'administration, le Canada francophone, la géographie, l'histoire, le droit, la littérature, les sciences de l'éducation et les politiques sociales. Ces groupes spécialisés organisent des séminaires, participent au congrès annuel et assument de façon générale les responsabilités de recherche et d'enseignement dans leur domaine respectif.

Il existe aussi deux (2) autres groupes thématiques, l'un sur la bibliothéconomie et l'autre sur la didactique. L'objectif de ce dernier est de promouvoir les thèmes canadiens dans les programmes scolaires. Il est fort probable que d'autres groupes thématiques s'ajouteront à cette liste. L'Association examine actuellement le projet de formation de deux (2) nouveaux groupes qui se pencheront sur les média et les communications et sur les sciences politiques. Pour plus d'information concernant ces groupes, veuillez contacter l'Association à Quebec House, 50, Pall Mall, London, SW1Y 5JH.

Au Centre d'études canadiennes de l'Université d'Edimbourg, sous la direction de Ged Martin, des cours sont offerts en géographie, histoire, politique, économie et sociologie. Le Centre reçoit l'aide financière de l'Université et de la Fondation des études canadiennes au Royaume-Uni. Le gouvernement albertain, pour sa part, soutient le programme Alberta Visiting Fellowships. La bibliothèque de l'Université d'Edimbourg contient une imposante collection d'ouvrages sur le Canada.

A l'Université de Leeds, le Centre régional d'études canadiennes est présidé par Donald Lee. On y offre des cours touchant la géographie, la géologie, l'histoire, les relations internationales, la politique, le droit, la littérature et les sciences et la technologie. La Fondation des études canadiennes au Royaume-Uni offre des bourses permettant à des professeurs ou à des étudiants de deuxième cycle de se rendre au Canada pour de courts séjours d'études. Le Centre organise aussi à l'occasion des colloques ou séminaires.

The University has established an exchange programme for academics with the four universities of Alberta.

In 1981, the University of Birmingham was designated a Regional Canadian Study Centre and has created a Department of American and Canadian Studies. It provides teaching on Canada in the areas of American Studies, French language and literature, geography and politics. Since 1981, the University has contracted lecturers on Canadian Studies, with support from both the Department of External Affairs and the Foundation for Canadian Studies in the United Kingdom. The Centre has links with Sir Wilfrid Laurier University (Waterloo, Canada) and Laval University (Québec, Canada).

Queen's University, Belfast, was recognized as a Centre for Canadian Studies in 1985. It has, as a focus of its interests, a Canada Room. It is currently compiling major library holdings on Canada, organizing extramural courses and public symposia on Canadian Studies, and promoting other undergraduate teaching and postgraduate research in a variety of disciplines. Particular emphasis is given to topics of shared interest to Canada and Northern Ireland: migration, ethnicity and marginality, for example.

In addition to the existing Centres, three Canadian Studies programmes have recently been established at British universities. Cambridge University has created the Samuel Reichmann Fellowship in Canadian Studies within the Social and Political Sciences faculty. Nottingham has a lectureship in Canadian Studies within the Department of American and Canadian Studies and the University of Newcastle upon Tyne has set up a Program in Contemporary Studies in cooperation with the city's Polytechnic. The University of Keele has also recently appointed a lecturer in Canadian Studies in October 1991.

Membership in the Association is open to all branches of education, industry and commerce, and to individuals and institutions with an interest in Canada. The fees, including publications, are: regular, £7; student, £5; institutional, £10.

Enfin, l'Université a mis sur pied un programme d'échanges de professeurs avec les quatre universités de l'Alberta.

Un Centre régional d'études canadiennes et un département d'études canadiennes et américaines ont été créés à l'Université de Birmingham en 1981. On y offre des cours sur le Canada dans les domaines suivants: études américaines, langue et littérature françaises, géographie et sciences politiques. Depuis sa fondation, l'Université y nomme des chargés de cours, ceci grâce à l'appui financier du ministère des Affaires extérieures du Canada et de la Fondation des études canadiennes au Royaume-Uni. Le Centre entretient également des relations suivies avec l'Université Wilfrid Laurier (Waterloo, Canada) et l'Université Laval (Québec, Canada).

L'Université Queen's à Belfast a été reconnue comme Centre d'études canadiennes en 1985. On y constitue une importante collection de livres sur le Canada à la bibliothèque universitaire; des cours pour les adultes, des colloques publics, de même que divers cours et programmes de recherche soit également organisés. L'accent est mis sur des sujets qui lient tout particulièrement le Canada à l'Irlande du Nord soit, par exemple, l'immigration et les questions ethniques.

Outre ces centres, trois (3) programmes d'études canadiennes ont été créés dernièrement dans diverses universités britanniques: la chaire Samuel Reichman en études canadiennes, à Cambridge (faculté des sciences sociales et politiques); le programme du département d'études américaines et canadiennes de l'Université de Nottingham; et, finalement, celui de l'Université de Newcastle upon Tyne, qui a établi, en collaboration avec l'Ecole polytechnique de la ville, un Programme d'études contemporaines. Signalons enfin que l'Université de Keele vient de créer une chaire d'études canadiennes en octobre 1991.

L'adhésion est ouverte à toute personne ou organisation intéressée aux études sur le Canada. Les frais d'adhésion, qui comprennent toutes les publications de l'Association, sont les suivants : membre régulier, £7; étudiant, £5; organisation, £10.

In 1971, the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS) was created to encourage research, teaching, and publication about Canada at all educational levels and in all disciplines. Its international membership of over 1300 active members includes professors, secondary school teachers, librarians, publishers, and representatives of government, business and professional groups. Over 400 universities and colleges in the United States and Canada are represented.

A national conference, regional meetings, symposia and publishing are the Association's main activities. ACSUS publishes The American Review of Canadian Studies, edited by Lee Thompson, English Department, University of Vermont. The quarterly journal contains scholarly articles and book reviews on all aspects of Canadian Studies. Canadian Studies Update, the Association's triannual newsletter, includes valuable information about grant opportunities, new programmes and upcoming conferences. ACSUS' last biennial meeting was held November 20-21, 1991 in Boston, Massachusetts.

Membership in ACSUS covers the calendar year. The fees are: individual, $45; institutional, $90; students, $20.

L'Association d'études canadiennes aux Etats-Unis (AECEU) a été créée en 1971 dans le but d'encourager la recherche, l'enseignement et les publications sur le Canada à tous les niveaux d'enseignement et dans toutes les disciplines. L'Association compte plus de 1 300 membres actifs comprenant des professeurs d'universités et de collèges, des bibliothécaires, des éditeurs, des représentants des milieux professionnels, gouvernementaux et des affaires des Etats-Unis et de l'étranger. Plus de 400 établissements collégiaux et universitaires des Etats-Unis et du Canada y sont représentés.

Les principales activités de l'Association sont la mise sur pied de congrès nationaux, de rencontres régionales et de colloques ainsi que de publications. L'AECEU publie The American Review for Canadian Studies (dirigée par Lee Thompson, département d'anglais, University of Vermont). Cette revue trimestrielle contient des articles et des comptes rendus traitant de tous les aspects des études canadiennes. Le Canadian Studies Update, bulletin de l'Association, offre des renseignements utiles sur les bourses, les nouveaux programmes et les congrès ou conférences à venir. Le dernier congrès de l'AECEU a eu lieu les 20-21 novembre 1991 à Boston, Massachussetts.

Les frais d'adhésion à l'Association couvrent l'année civile. Ils sont de 45 $ pour les individus, de 90 $ pour les institutions et de 20 $ pour les étudiants.

Established in 1982, the Centre for Canadian Studies (CCS) takes a dual approach to Canadian Studies, both multi-disciplinary and comparative. It includes professors, primarily in the humanities, and experts in fields as varied as literature, linguistics, sociology, law, history, media and computer sciences. Research topics examined to date include: the coexistence of linguistic communities and its impact on history, politics, sociology, culture, the laicisation of society (Quebec society in particular) and economic relations between Belgium and Canada since the late 19th century.

To promote cooperation with Canadian universities, the CCS organizes regular Belgian-Canadian conferences, and publishes the proceedings.

The Centre also encourages courses, conferences, seminars and students' work, whether through the instruction provided by its members, or by hosting Canadian professors or sponsoring student exchanges.

A library and reading room are available to educators, researchers and students. Through these varied resources, CCS members can regularly participate in international conferences on Canadian Studies.

Since its creation, the CCS has organized an international conference in Brussels every two years.

Fondé en 1982, le Centre d'Etudes Canadiennes (CEC) s'est fixé pour double objectif d'aborder les études canadiennes selon une approche pluridisciplinaire et comparatiste. Il réunit des enseignants appartenant principalement aux Facultés de Sciences Humaines, spécialistes de domaines aussi variés que la littérature, la linguistique, la sociologie, le droit, l'histoire, les médias, l'informatique... Parmi les thèmes de recherche abordés jusqu'ici, retenons: la coexistence des communautés linguistiques et ses conséquences sur les plans historique, politique, sociologique, culturel, la laïcisation de la société, en particulier au Québec, et les relations économiques belgo-canadiennes depuis la fin du XIXe siècle.

En vue de développer une collaboration avec les universités canadiennes, le CEC organise régulièrement des colloques belgo-canadiens dont il publie les actes.

D'autre part, le Centre a pour mission de faciliter l'organisation de cours, de conférences, de séminaires ou de travaux d'étudiants que ce soit par des enseignements dispensés par ses membres, l'accueil de professeurs canadiens ou des échanges d'enseignants.

Une bibliothèque avec salle de lecture est mise à la disposition des enseignants, chercheurs et étudiants. Grâce à ces diverses ressources, les membres du CEC sont en mesure de participer régulièrement aux colloques internationaux d'études canadiennes.

Depuis sa fondation, le CEC organise, à Bruxelles, un colloque international tous les deux ans. Le choix

The broad range of themes is evidenced in the following conference titles:
. Powerful neighbours (November 24-26, 1983)
. The forms and discourse of modernity in the French-language Canadian novel (November 27-29, 1985)
. Social issues in Belgium and Canada in the 19th-20th centuries (November 25-27, 1987)
. Multiple voices: Recent Canadian Fiction (29 November-1 December 1989)
. Le statut de l'artiste (4-6 December 1991).

des thèmes est étendu comme en témoignent les titres des colloques suivants.
. Les grands voisins (24-26 novembre 1983)
. Formes et discours de la modernité dans le roman canadien d'expression française (27-29 novembre 1985)
. La question sociale en Belgique et au Canada aux 19e-20e siècles (25-27 novembre 1987)
. Multiple voices: Recent Canadian Fiction (29 novembre-1er décembre 1989)
. Le statut de l'artiste (4-6 décembre 1991).

Founded on July 3, 1989, the Centre de recherches sur la francophonie (CRF) aims to promote multidisciplinary research and summary studies on France and French-speaking countries. The CRF became an associate member of the International Council for Canadian Studies in 1991.

Apart from research, the CRF endeavours to promote researcher and student exchanges, organize conferences and develop a documentation centre.

Among the projects underway, the most important include: preparations for an international conference entitled Une autre Amérique, une nouvelle culture (Another America, a New Culture), planned for late October 1992; and a research project entitled Etude sur le Canada francophone; un exemple de la transplantation culturelle (A study of Canada's Francophones, an example of cultural transplantation), conducted by four of the Centre's researchers and funded by the Korean National Department of Education.

Créé le 3 juillet 1989, le Centre de recherches sur la francophonie (CRF) a pour but de promouvoir les recherches pluridisciplinaires et les études de synthèse sur la France et les pays francophones. Le CRF a été admis comme membre associé du CIEC en 1991.

Outre la recherche, le CRF entend favoriser les échanges de chercheurs et d'étudiants, ainsi que l'organisation de colloques et la constitution d'un centre de documentation.

Parmi les projets en cours, les plus importants sont: la préparation d'un colloque international sur le thème: Une autre Amérique, une nouvelle culture; le colloque est prévu pour la fin d'octobre 1992. Par ailleurs, quatre chercheurs du Centre ont mis sur pied un projet de recherche sur le thème: Etude sur le Canada francophone; un exemple de la transplantation culturelle. Ce projet est subventionné par le Ministère coréen de l'éducation nationale.

Established in 1984 under the name Canadian Studies Programme, the Center aims to foster mutual understanding and academic cooperation between Korea and Canada. It became an associate member of ICCS in 1989.

The Centre provides a forum, as well as support, for research, teaching, educational exchanges and other academic activities. Since its establishment, it has sponsored well over 30 seminars and lectures on Canadian subjects in Korea. Every year since 1987, in cooperation with the University of Alberta, the Center organizes the Korea-Canada Conference. The venue for the conference alternates between the two countries. In 1990, a first conference between the University of Toronto and Yonsei University was organized.

Since 1989, the Center has published, Canada Yon-Ku (The Korean Journal of Canadian Studies), in Korean, annually. It has also published four books on Korean-Canadian topics, in Korean and in English.

The Center promotes teaching on Canada: five departments (Political Science, Public Administration and Business Administration, Economics and Education) are currently offering courses with Canadian content.

Academic exchanges are an important part of the Centre's activities: in 1989 and 1990, six Canadian professors were invited to Yonsei University, and nine Yonsei professors participated in international conferences in Canada.

Le Centre a été fondé en 1984. Connu alors sous le nom de Programme d'études canadiennes, il a pour mandat de favoriser la compréhension mutuelle et la coopération universitaire entre la Corée et le Canada. Le Centre a été admis à titre de membre associé du CIEC en 1989.

Le Centre constitue à la fois un lieu d'échanges et une infrastructure pour la recherche, l'enseignement, les échanges universitaires et d'autres activités de type académique. Depuis sa fondation, il a organisé plus d'une trentaine de séminaires et de conférences sur des thèmes canadiens en Corée. Chaque année depuis 1987, le Centre organise, en collaboration avec l'Université de l'Alberta le Congrès Corée-Canada, qui se tient alternativement dans chacun des deux pays. Un congrès similaire a été organisé pour la première fois en 1990 avec l'Université de Toronto.

Depuis 1989, le Centre publie Canada Yon-Ku (La Revue d'études canadiennes, annuelle, en coréen). Il a publié également quatre ouvrages consacrés au Canada et à la Corée, en coréen et en anglais.

Le Centre encourage l'enseignement sur le Canada: cinq départements de l'Université Yonsei offrent présentement des cours sur le Canada: Science politique, Administration publique, Administration des affaires, Economie, Education.

Les échanges universitaires constituent l'une des priorités du Centre: en 1989 et 1990, six professeurs canadiens ont été invités à Yonsei, et neuf professeurs de cette université ont participé à des congrès internationaux au Canada.

American Council for Québec Studies

President/Président
Robert M. Gill
Department of Political Science
Radford University
Radford, VA 24142 U.S.A.
Tel: 703 831 5155

Founded in 1980, the American Council for Québec Studies is an association of scholars and others with teaching, research, and/or business interests in Québec and French Canada. Members are based in the academic, legal, business, and government communities, and represent a wide variety of disciplines including the social sciences, the humanities, economics and business. Members come from all regions of the United States. Associate members are located throughout Canada and a number of other countries. Currently, the number of members and associates totals well over 400. The ACQS was admitted as an associate member of the ICCS in 1989.

The Council publishes a newsletter for members and the highly regarded journal Québec Studies. The journal, published twice a year, contains the work of American, Canadian, and other specialists, with virtually all disciplines represented.

The Council sponsors occasional seminars and meetings, including some under the aegis of its regional coordinators, and special projects. Recent examples are the Wingspread Conference on «Canada, Québec, and the United States: Scenarios for the 1990's» (co-sponsored with the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States) and the publication Plus ou Moins: The Status of Québec Studies in the United States, 1990, which was sent to all members.

The Council sponsors a biennial conference. The most recent, held in Chicago in November, 1990, was attended by over two hundred participants. The program featured a total of thirty-eight panels, roundtables, and plenaries over a three-day period, with a full variety of disciplines, approaches, and professions represented. The upcoming conference will be held at the Delta Hotel in Montréal from November 19 to 22, 1992.

L'American Council for Québec Studies, fondé en 1980, est une association regroupant des chercheurs et d'autres personnes ayant un intérêt envers le Québec et le Canada français. Ses membres proviennent du monde universitaire, des milieux juridiques, d'affaires et du gouvernement, et ils représentent un vaste éventail de disciplines dans le domaine des sciences sociales, incluant l'économie et l'administration, et des humanités. Toutes les régions des Etats-Unis sont représentées. Le Conseil compte aussi des membres associés, provenant du Canada et de plusieurs autres pays. A l'heure actuelle, on compte plus de 400 membres et membres associés. Le Conseil a été admis à titre de membre associé du CIEC en 1989.

Le Conseil publie un bulletin de nouvelles, ainsi que la prestigieuse revue Québec Studies. Publiée deux fois l'an, la revue offre des articles de spécialistes américains, canadiens et d'autres nationalités, dans à peu près toutes les disciplines.

Le Conseil organise des rencontres et des séminaires, dont certains sont confiés à des coordonnateurs régionaux, ainsi que des projets spéciaux. Parmi les plus récentes, citons le Congrès de Wingspread, organisé avec l'Association américaine d'études canadiennes, sur le thème: Canada, Québec et les Etats-Unis: Scénarios pour les années 1990, ainsi que la publication de Plus ou moins: The Status of Québec Studies in the United States, 1990, ouvrage qui a été distribué à tous les membres.

Le Conseil organise aussi un Congrès biennal. Le plus récent, tenu à Chicago en novembre 1990, regroupait plus de 200 participants. Pendant trois jours, les congressistes, qui représentaient une grande variété de disciplines, d'approches méthodologiques et de professions, ont pu participer à 38 séances ou tables rondes. Le prochain congrès aura lieu à Montréal, à l'hôtel Delta, du 19 au 22 novembre 1992.

Dues for members and associate members are $30.00 ($20.00 for students), payable in U.S. funds. Persons residing outside the United States are asked to include an additional $4.00 U.S. to cover the cost of postage. Please send dues or address inquiries to: Professor Constantina Mitchell, ACQS Secretary, Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Gallaudet University, Washington, D.C. 20002.

La cotisation pour les membres et les membres associés est de 30.00$ U.S. (20.00$ pour les étudiants). Les membres résidant hors des Etats-Unis sont priés d'ajouter 4.00$ U.S. pour couvrir les frais de poste supplémentaires. Prière de contacter: Professeur Constantina Mitchell, Secrétaire de l'A.C.Q.S., Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures, Gallaudet University, Washington, D.C. 20002.

The London Conference for Canadian Studies (LCCS)

Set up in 1982 to encourage Canadian Studies in London and south-eastern England, from East Anglia and Cambridge in the east to Oxford, Reading, Southampton and Bournemouth in the west and south-west, the main activities of the LCCS are an annual conference, a spring seminar, and the annual publication of the London Journal of Canadian Studies. The current chairman is Dr. John Davis, Birkbeck College Centre of Canadian Studies, Department of Geography, University of London, 7-15 Gresse Street, London W1P 1PA. Telephone: 071-631-6476. Editor of the Journal: Dr. Margaret Storrie, Department of Earth Sciences, Queen Mary and Westfield College, University of London, Mile End Road, London E1 4NS.

La LCCS a été établie en 1982 pour faciliter les études canadiennes à Londres et dans le sud-est de l'Angleterre, de l'East Anglia et de Cambridge à l'est, jusqu'à Oxford, Reading, Southampton et Bournemouth à l'ouest et au sud-ouest. Ses principales activités consistent en un congrès annuel, un séminaire, et la publication, annuelle, du London Journal of Canadian Studies. Le directeur de la LCCS est le Dr. John Davis, Birkbeck College Centre of Canadian Studies, Department of Geography, University of London, 7-15 Gresse Street, London W1P 1PA. Téléphone: 071-631-6476. Rédactrice du Journal: Dr. Margaret Storrie, Department of Earth Sciences, Queen Mary and Westfield College, University of London, Mile End Road, London E1 4NS.

University of Wales Canadian Studies Group

This group was formerly the Canadian Studies in Wales Group created in 1983 to provide a focus for the variety of academic interests concerned with Canadian Studies in the various colleges of the University of Wales, the Polytechnic of Wales and the Welsh Colleges of further education. In 1990, it became a formally designated committee of the University of Wales, and was renamed the University of Wales Canadian Studies Group.

The group holds conferences and seminars and guest lectures; sponsors a visiting fellowship tenable at any Créé en 1983, ce groupe a d'abord été connu sous le nom de Canadian Studies in Wales Group; son objectif est de regrouper les universitaires s'intéressant au Canada dans les divers collèges et universités du Pays de Galles (University of Wales, Polytechnic of Wales, Welsh Colleges of further education). En 1990, le groupe a été formellement reconnu par l'University of Wales et a été re-baptisé University of Wales Canadian Studies Group.

Le groupe organise des congrès et séminaires et invite des conférenciers. Il parraine aussi un poste de one of the colleges of the university; publishes occasional papers based on conferences; and keeps a research register of academics in Wales with Canadian interests.

The President of the group is Professor Muriel Chamberlain, Department of History, University College of Swansea, Singleton Park, Swansea SA2 8PP. The current Chairman is Denis Balsom, Department of International Politics, University College of Wales, Llandinam Building, Penglais, Aberystwyth, Dyfed SY23 3DB.

professeur invité, qui peut être assigné à l'un ou l'autre des collèges de l'Université. Il publie les actes des congrès, et conserve un répertoire des chercheurs du Pays de Galles intéressés au Canada.

Le président du groupe est le professeur Muriel Chamberlain, Department of History, University College of Swansea, Singleton Park, Swansea SA2 8PP. Le directeur est Denis Balsom, Department of International Politics, University College of Wales, Llandinam Building, Penglais, Aberystwyth, Dyfed SY23 3DB.

South West Canadian Studies Group

This group came into being in 1985, and embraces academics and institutions from Dorset and Wiltshire in the east to Cornwall in the west, and from Bristol and Bath in the north to the coastal area in the south. Its activities include conferences, workshops and lectures.

The compilation of a register of Canadian interests of group members is planned.

The Centre for North American Studies at the College of St Mark and St John in Plymouth was responsible for producing a series of four teaching packages on Canada for use in senior secondary schools.

The Secretary/Treasurer of the Group is Michael Rush, Department of Politics, University of Exeter, Amery Building, Exeter EX4 4NL.

Ce groupe est né en 1985, et il regroupe les universitaires et les institutions d'enseignement du Dorset et du Wiltshire à l'est, jusqu'a Cornwall à l'ouest, et de Bristol et Bath au nord jusqu'à la côte, au sud. Le groupe organise des congrès, des ateliers et des conférences.

Le groupe compte publier prochainement un répertoire des recherches des membres du groupe.

Le Centre d'études nord-américaines du College of St Mark and St John, à Plymouth, a publié quatre guides pédagogiques sur le Canada destinés aux dernières années du cours secondaire.

Le secrétaire-trésorier du groupe est Michael Rush, Department of Politics, University of Exeter, Amery Building, Exeter EX4 4NL.

III

CENTRES AND PROGRAMMES OF CANADIAN STUDIES OUTSIDE CANADA
CENTRES ET PROGRAMMES D'ETUDES CANADIENNES HORS DU CANADA

This chapter contains information on Centres and Programmes of Canadian Studies outside Canada. The centres and programmes listed in this chapter are those for which filled-out questionnaires have been returned to the ICCS Secretariat.

It should be said immediately that the distinction between Centres and Programmes is not a clear-cut one, so much so that we have decided to list them in a single chapter, instead of devoting a chapter to Centres and another one to Programmes, as originally planned. As indicated in the General Introduction, we had developed discrete questionnaires for Centres and Programmes. Both questionnaires were actually administered, and responses were originally compiled with a view to publishing two different chapters, one on Centres of research, the other on Programmes of teaching. It appeared very soon, however, that the distinction we had established between Centres and Programmes was somewhat blurred, and very often artificial. After some consultations, we decided to amalgamate the contents of the two chapters, while ensuring that we would not loose any information in the process. As a result, the present chapter includes data on centres of research, centres of teaching and research, as well as programmes of teaching in Canadian Studies.

The information is arranged alphabetically, by country, and by name of centre or programme within each country. We have not translated the entries, which will be in English or French, depending on the language used by respondents (except for Italy: data was received in Italian, and we arbitrarily decided to translate in French).

Ce chapitre rassemble les informations disponibles sur les centres et les programmes d'études canadiennes hors du Canada. Seuls les centres et programmes qui ont renvoyé au secrétariat du CIEC les questionnaires appropriés sont énumérés ici.

Signalons immédiatement que la distinction entre «centre» et «programme» d'études canadiennes, qui semblait claire lorsque nous avons abordé ce projet, s'est très vite avérée difficile à appliquer, à tel point que nous avons décidé de présenter en un seul et même chapitre les données concernant les centres et programmes, plutôt que de les répartir en deux chapitres différents, comme prévu à l'origine. Comme nous l'avons indiqué dans l'introduction générale, nous avions mis au point des questionnaires différents pour les centres et les programmes, et ces questionnaires furent effectivement distribués, et les réponses reçues furent compilées en vue de publier deux chapitres, l'un sur les programmes d'études canadiennes, l'autre sur les centres d'études canadiennes. Très vite, cependant, il devint évident que la distinction théorique que nous avions établi entre centres et programmes n'était pas fonctionnelle, et s'avérait parfois très artificielle. Après diverses consultations, nous avons donc décidé d'amalgamer le contenu des deux chapitres, tout en nous assurant de ne perdre aucun élément d'information dans le processus. On trouvera donc dans ce chapitre des données concernant les centres de recherche, les centres de recherche et d'enseignement, et les programmes d'enseignement.

Les données sont classées d'abord par ordre alphabétique de pays et, à l'intérieur de chacun des pays, par ordre alphabétique de centre ou de programme. Les entrées n'ont pas été traduites, mais simplement reproduites dans la langue utilisée par les répondants, soit le français ou l'anglais (la seule exception est l'Italie, pour laquelle les données nous ont été transmises en italien, et que nous avons décidé de traduire en français). Afin de faciliter les

In order to facilitate searching for a definite country, we have cross-referenced the names of the countries.

Each entry provides the following information: 1) name of the centre or programme, followed by the year of foundation; 2) postal address; 3) telephone, fax and telex numbers, when available. The telephone and fax numbers include the regional or city code, and the number. We have not given the country code, since this code changes depending from where the call is placed. 4) name of current director; 5) if the centre or programme is also a documentation centre, it is mentioned and, when available, the size of the collection is given; 6) where a degree-granting programme of teaching exists, we give the name of the degree, and the name of the director of the programme; where a centre is offering some courses in Canadian Studies, while not providing a degree, we have simply indicated that the centre was offering courses, without specifying what they are; 7) areas of research are also listed, where available, that is to say for all centres of research and centres of research and teaching. They are indexed in chapter 11. 8) finally, where centres or programmes have a regular publications programme, the titles of the series, or journals, are mentioned. It should be stressed that the «publications» section in this chapter is not intended as a list of publications of individual members of the Centre or Programme. This point was not made clearly in the questionnaires that were circulated and, as a consequence, many centres or programmes listed works published by their members. We have not kept this information, since it would have duplicated the information contained in chapter 5.

recherches, nous avons inclus des renvois aux noms des pays en français et en anglais.

Chacune des entrées fournit les renseignements suivants: 1) nom du centre ou du programme, suivi de l'année de fondation; 2) adresse postale; 3) numéros de téléphone, télécopieur et télex, selon la disponibilité. Nous ne donnons que les indicatifs régionaux et les numéros de téléphone ou de télécopieur; les codes de pays n'ont pas été indiqués, étant donné que ces codes varient selon le pays d'où émane l'appel. 4) nom de la directrice ou du directeur; 5) lorsque le centre ou le programme dispose d'un centre de documentation, nous l'indiquons, ainsi que la dimension de la collection, lorsque l'information est disponible; 6)pour les programmes d'études canadiennes qui décernent des diplômes, nous donnons le titre du diplôme, ainsi que le nom de la directrice ou du directeur; dans le cas des centres ou programmes qui dispensent des cours sans décerner de diplômes, nous indiquons seulement le fait qu'ils dispensent un enseignement; 7) pour tous les centres de recherche, nous indiquons les champs de recherche qui y sont poursuivis, et ces champs de recherche sont indexés au chapitre 11 (Index par matières); 8) enfin, nous indiquons les titres des séries de publications ou des revues et bulletins publiés par les centres ou programmes. Il convient de noter que la section «publications» de ce chapitre n'a pas pour but d'énumérer les publications des membres individuels des centres. Ce point n'avait pas été clairement indiqué dans le questionnaire et, par conséquent, plusieurs centres ont donné une liste des publications de leurs membres. Nous n'avons pas conservé cette information, qui aurait fait double emploi avec l'information donnée au chapitre 5.

CENTRES AND PROGRAMMES OF CANADIAN STUDIES IN CANADA
CENTRES ET PROGRAMMES D'ETUDES CANADIENNES AU CANADA

Detailed information on Canadian Studies Centres and Programmes in Canada can be found in the Directory to Canadian, Quebec and Regional Studies in Canada, published by the Canadian Studies Directorate of the Department of the Secretary of State (Ottawa, 1989). Rather than duplicating this information, we have decided to list only the most basic information concerning these centres and to invite the reader to consult the above-mentioned directory or, for detailed up-to-date information, consult the secretariat of the Association for Canadian Studies (ACS), in Montréal, P.O. 8888, Station A, Montreal, Quebec H3C 3P8.

The data presented in this chapter is classified alphabetically, by province, and within each province, by university. In addition to the postal address, each entry provides the name of the Director and telephone and fax numbers. The information presented in this chapter was compiled and verified by the Association for Canadian Studies. We thank them sincerely for their collaboration.

Le Répertoire des études canadiennes, québécoises et régionales au Canada, publié par la Direction des études canadiennes du Secrétariat d'Etat du Canada (Ottawa, 1989) contient une foule de renseignements sur les centres d'études canadiennes, et, plutôt que de répéter ces renseignements, nous avons pris le parti de ne fournir dans ce chapitre que les données les plus élémentaires sur les Centres canadiens. Nous invitons les lecteurs qui désirent plus de détails à consulter le Répertoire cité ci-dessus, ou encore à contacter le secrétariat de l'Association d'études canadiennes, C.P. 8888, Succ. A, Montréal, Québec H3C 3P8.

Les données de ce chapitre sont classées d'abord par province, en ordre alphabétique, puis par université à l'intérieur de chaque province. Pour chaque centre, on trouvera le nom du centre, son adresse postale, le nom de la directrice ou du directeur, et des numéros de téléphone et de télécopieur. Nous remercions sincèrement l'Association d'études canadiennes, qui a effectué la compilation et la vérification des données présentées ici.

COURSES, RESEARCH AND PUBLICATIONS IN CANADIAN STUDIES
COURS, RECHERCHES ET PUBLICATIONS EN ETUDES CANADIENNES

This chapter contains information on the different Canadian Studies disciplines, research fields, courses and publications of individuals who belong to ICCS member associations. Data was gathered through a questionnaire sent to all association members (see General Introduction). The response rate varied considerably: in some countries, almost all individual association members responded, while in others the response was much weaker. In general, the members of small- and medium-sized associations replied in greatest number. Of a possible total slightly less than 4,000 Canadianists, 1,500 completed the questionnaire. Though not entirely satisfactory, this 37.5% response rate is nevertheless quite acceptable for a such a survey.

The entries in this Chapter are listed first by discipline and then in alphabetical order. Although some researchers indicated more than one discipline on their questionnaire, we reprinted only the one which seemed most representative of the research, courses and publications of the researcher in question. Some of these choices may therefore be rather arbitrary.

Research fields and courses are listed in alphabetical order. Publications are listed first by year of publication, in descending order, and then in alphabetical order where several listings exist for a given year. Undated publications and "forthcoming" publications appear at the end of the list. We also limited the number of publications listed per individual to five (5).

The names of individuals for whom no information was provided under the headings COURSES, RESEARCH and PUBLICATIONS do not appear in this chapter. They are listed in the Canadianist directory (Chapter 10) and the name index (Chapter 12). Indeed, this chapter consists exclusively of individuals with at least one item of information under any of the three headings mentioned above.

Ce chapitre présente les renseignements concernant les disciplines, les domaines de recherche, les cours et les publications en études canadiennes des membres des associations faisant partie du CIEC. Les données ont été recueillies au moyen d'un questionnaire, administré à tous les membres des associations (voir Introduction générale). Le taux de réponse à ce questionnaire a varié beaucoup d'un pays à l'autre: dans certains pays, ce sont presque tous les membres individuels de l'Association qui ont répondu, tandis qu'ailleurs, la proportion de répondants a été beaucoup plus faible.

De façon générale, on peut dire que ce sont les membres des associations de petite et moyenne taille qui ont répondu le plus massivement. Au total, sur un effectif possible d'un peu moins de 4 000 canadianistes, 1500 ont renvoyé leur questionnaire. Ce taux de réponse de 37.5%, même s'il n'est pas entièrement satisfaisant, est néanmoins très acceptable pour ce type d'enquête.

Les entrées de ce chapitre sont triées premièrement par discipline et ensuite par ordre alphabétique des individus. Certains chercheurs avaient déclaré plus d'une discipline, dans leur réponse au questionnaire; nous n'avons gardé qu'une, soit celle qui semblait la plus pertinente d'après les recherches, cours et publications du chercheur concerné. Cela signifie que certains choix ont probablement été faits d'une façon quelque peu arbitraire.

A l'intérieur de chaque entrée, les domaines de recherche et les cours enseignés sont triés par ordre alphabétique seulement. Les publications sont triées, en premier lieu par année de publication en ordre décroissant et ensuite par ordre alphabétique, en ordre croissant. Les publications sans date de même que les «A paraître» sont énumérées à la fin de la liste. Nous avons de plus limité à cinq (5) le nombre de publications par individus.

Please note that the information under the PUBLICATIONS heading is limited to Canadian Studies. To save space, we included only publications with a direct bearing on Canada; where the subject matter of a publication was unclear, we decided to err in favour of the author and list the publication.

Figures following the titles of courses and seminars refer to the level of the course: (1): undergraduate course; (2): graduate course/seminar; (3): unknown.

If the title of a publication is not given in italics or "quotation marks", readers may assume that we were unable to determine whether the title refers to an article or a book, based on the information we received. Although we would have liked to standardize the bibliographical presentation of the publications listed, we decided to reproduce the information as originally received, except where clarity dictated changes, given the wide range of schools and national traditions involved and the many incomplete references.

As mentioned earlier (in the GENERAL INTRODUCTION), some titles of works published in languages other than English or French were sometimes translated rather liberally into English or French by their authors. This does not necessarily mean that the works themselves have been translated. Whenever possible, we have used the original title, with a transcription in brackets to indicate the source language.

The research fields indicated by the researchers and listed under the heading RESEARCH are indexed in Chapter 11: Subject Index

Les entrées qui ne comportaient aucune information sous les rubriques COURS, RECHERCHE et PUBLICATIONS n'apparaissent pas dans ce chapitre mais se retrouvent dans le répertoire des canadianistes (Ch. 10) et à l'index des noms (Ch. 12). Nous n'avons gardé en effet dans le présent chapitre que les individus ayant au moins une mention sous une des trois rubriques sus-mentionnées.

Les chiffres qui suivent les titres des cours et séminaires ont la signification suivante: (1): cours de premier cycle; (2): cours de 2e ou 3e cycle; (3): niveau du cours non précisé.

Il est important de noter que les informations publiées ici sous la rubrique PUBLICATIONS sont limitées aux études canadiennes. Pour des raisons évidentes d'économie d'espace, nous n'avons gardé que les publications touchant directement le Canada; dans le cas où il y avait incertitude quant au contenu de la publication, nous avons été conservateurs et avons donné à l'auteur le bénéfice du doute.

Si une publication n'est ni en italique ni entre «guillemets», cela veut dire que les renseignements que nous avons reçus étaient incomplets; nous ne savons pas s'il s'agit d'un article ou d'un livre. Nous aurions aimé pouvoir normaliser la présentation des titres des publications; mais face à la diversité des écoles et des traditions nationales, et compte tenu du caractère incomplet de nombreuses références, nous avons conservé le format dans lequel l'information nous avait été transmise, excepté lorsque cela prêtait à confusion.

Comme nous l'avons déjà signalé (en INTRODUCTION GENERALE) certains titres d'ouvrages publiés dans une langue autre que l'anglais ou le français ont été traduits en anglais ou en français, parfois assez librement, par leurs auteurs. Cela ne signifie pas nécessairement que ces ouvrages ont été traduits. Lorsque la chose était possible, nous avons retrouvé le titre original, et nous en avons donné une transcription, entre parenthèses, avec une indication de la langue d'origine.

Les domaines de recherche déclarés par les chercheurs et qui apparaissent sous la rubrique RECHERCHES sont indexés au chapitre 11: Index thématique.

JOURNALS, PROCEEDINGS AND DIRECTORIES OF CANADIAN STUDIES
REVUES, ACTES DE CONGRES ET REPERTOIRES D'ETUDES CANADIENNES

This chapter has been compiled from a bibliographic database containing information on publications received from, or reported by, ICCS associations and their members.

The chapter is divided into three sections. Section one lists scholarly journals; Section two, published proceedings of conferences; Section three, directories of Canadianists. Please note that section two generally lists only the separately published proceedings of ICCS associations or associate members. Papers from association conferences may also be published in the association's scholarly journal. For more information on proceedings of other conferences, seminars, etc. Please consult Canadian Studies: Foreign Publications and Theses. Compiled by Linda M. Jones, Ottawa, Ontario: ICCS, 1989, ISBN 0-9691862-2-3, or contact the ICCS librarian.

In each section arrangement is by country or regional grouping with subarrangement by title. Titles are listed as they appear on the title page or cover of the publication and all parallel titles are recorded, separated by an equal sign [=].

Scholarly journals currently publishing are listed by title, followed by the volume designation of the first issue. In instances where a journal has changed title, only the most recent title is listed. For previous titles please consult Canadian Studies: Foreign Publications and Theses. Information on the publishing frequency of each journal is supplied and the ISSN (International Standard Serial Number) is listed where applicable.

La source principale de ce chapitre est une base de données bibliographiques qui regroupe les publications des associations d'études canadiennes et de leurs membres, ainsi que toute autre publication concernant le Canada.

Le chapitre est divisé en trois sections: la première concerne les Revues, la deuxième énumère les Actes de congrès, et la troisième porte sur les Répertoires de canadianistes dans divers pays. Noter que les titres de la section 2 ne comprennent que les Actes de congrès ayant fait l'objet d'une publication séparée; des communications présentées lors de congrès peuvent aussi avoir été publiées dans la Revue de l'association. Pour obtenir plus de renseignements sur les publications des actes d'autres congrès, séminaires, etc., veuillez consulter: Etudes canadiennes. Publications et thèses étrangères, préparé par Linda Jones, Ottawa, Ontario, CIEC, 1989, ISBN 0-9691862-2-3, ou contacter la bibliothécaire du Conseil international d'études canadiennes.

Dans chaque section, les données sont présentées par pays ou région, et les titres sont ensuite classés par ordre alphabétique. Les titres sont ceux qui apparaissent sur la page-titre des publications recensées; lorsque les titres sont traduits, la traduction est également donnée, et elle est précédée du signe [=].

Pour les publications courantes, on donne le titre, suivi des renseignements bibliographiques concernant la première livraison. Lorsqu'il y a eu changement de titre, seul le titre le plus récent est donné. Pour des renseignements sur les titres précédents, voir: Etudes canadiennes. Publications et thèses étrangères. On trouvera également pour chaque périodique les données sur la périodicité et le numéro d'ISSN (International Standard Serial Number).

Chinese titles have been transliterated using the Wade-Giles system of romanization as used by the National Library of Canada and the Library of Congress.

Where known, the Pinyin romanization of a name follows in quotation marks [« »].

Les titres en langue chinoise ont été transcrits selon le système Wade-Giles, utilisé par la Bibliothèque nationale du Canada et la "Library of Congress".

Lorsqu'elle est disponible, la transcription en Pinyin est également donnée, entre guillemets [« »].

GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS IN CANADIAN STUDIES
BOURSES ET SUBVENTIONS EN ETUDES CANADIENNES

The purpose of this chapter is to provide scholars outside Canada with an overview of the programmes available to them and their institutions (universities, associations) in support of Canadian Studies.

A few words on the structure of this chapter are in order. The data have been arranged according to two major criteria: 1) availability of the programmes. Some of the existing programmes are offered widely, that is to say in most countries where Canadian Studies are found, while others are offered strictly in a few designated countries. This is reflected in the arrangement of the data. 2) we also distinguish among programmes which are available to individuals or groups of scholars, and programmes which are offered only to institutions.

The information provided in this chapter can only be very brief: in each case, however, we give a short description of the objective of the programme and its major characteristics, as well as the address where one should write to obtain more information.

Ce chapitre a pour objectif de fournir un aperçu des programmes de bourses et d'aide à la recherche en études canadiennes qui sont offerts par le Canada aux chercheurs et étudiants étrangers et aux institutions (universités, associations) dont ils font partie.

Quelques précisions s'imposent sur l'arrangement des données dans ce chapitre. Les renseignements sur les programmes ont été classés en fonction de deux critères: 1) la disponibilité des programmes. Certains programmes sont offerts presque partout où l'on trouve des études canadiennes, tandis que d'autres ne sont disponibles que dans un petit nombre de pays. 2) parmi les programmes énumérés, certains s'adressent à des individus ou des groupes de chercheurs, tandis que d'autres sont strictement réservés à des institutions. Ces distinctions ont dicté la structure du chapitre.

On ne trouvera dans ce chapitre que les renseignements les plus élémentaires sur chacun des programmes: très brève description des objectifs, et caractéristiques principales, mais on donne aussi dans chaque cas une adresse où il est possible d'écrire pour obtenir plus de renseignements.

A. PROGRAMMES AVAILABLE IN MOST COUNTRIES

1. Programmes available to individual students or scholars

GOVERNMENT OF CANADA AWARDS (G.C.A.). Awards offered by the Government of Canada to conduct studies or research in Canada at the master's, doctoral or post-doctoral level on topics related to Canada or Canadian expertise. The awards include a monthly living allowance, tuition and registration fees, installation and thesis allowances, medical and life insurance and, for some countries, air fare to and from Canada.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Programme Officer, G.C.A., International Council for Canadian Studies, 2 Daly Avenue, Ottawa, Canada K1N 6E2

[N.B. These awards are not available to students from the Commonwealth countries, for whom another fellowship programme is available: the Canadian Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan. Inquiries concerning this Plan should be addressed to: Commonwealth Scholarships, Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada, 151 Slater Street, Ottawa, Canada K1P 5N1]

FACULTY ENRICHMENT PROGRAMME (F.E.P.).

Programme designed to increase knowledge and understanding of Canada abroad by assisting academics in institutions of higher education to develop and teach courses about Canada in their own discipline, as part of their regular teaching load. The amount of the grant varies, but generally speaking, it will cover travel costs and provide an allowance for up to five weeks of sojourn in Canada.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy or High Commission of the applicant's country.

A. PROGRAMMES DISPONIBLES DANS LA PLUPART DES PAYS

1. Programmes destinés à des étudiants ou des chercheurs individuels

BOURSES DU GOUVERNEMENT DU CANADA (B.G.C.). Bourses offertes par le gouvernement du Canada pour poursuivre des études ou des recherches au Canada, au niveau des deuxième et troisième cycles, dans des domaines reliés au Canada ou aux matières dans lesquelles le Canada a acquis une renommée internationale. Les bourses comportent une allocation mensuelle de subsistance, les frais de scolarité et d'inscription, des allocations d'installation et de thèse, l'assurance médicale et l'assurance-vie, et, dans certains pays, le tarif aérien aller-retour.

Adresser les demandes de renseignements à l'Agent de programme, Conseil international d'études canadiennes, 2 avenue Daly, Ottawa, Canada K1N 6E2.

[N.B. Ce programme ne s'adresse pas aux étudiants des pays du Commonwealth, pour qui il existe un programme particulier: le Programme canadien des bourses du Commonwealth. Pour tout renseignement sur ces bourses, s'adresser à: Bourses du Commonwealth, Association des universités et collèges du Canada, 151 rue Slater, Ottawa, Canada K1P 5N1]

BOURSES DE COMPLEMENT DE SPECIALISATION (B.C.S.).

Programme qui a pour but de promouvoir la connaissance et la compréhension du Canada à l'étranger en aidant des universitaires à élaborer des cours sur le Canada dans leur domaine de spécialisation, qui seront intégrés à leur enseignement régulier. Le montant de la bourse varie, mais en règle générale il couvre les frais de voyage et une allocation de subsistance pour une période maximale de 5 semaines au Canada.

Adresser toute demande de renseignement à l'ambassade ou au haut-commissariat du Canada du pays de résidence du candidat.

FACULTY RESEARCH PROGRAMME (F.R.P.).

Programme designed to assist academics in institutions of higher education to undertake short term research about Canada or Canada's bilateral relations with the applicant's country. The award assists with direct costs related to the research project and, when a research trip is warranted, provides assistance towards international air fare and a weekly allowance.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy or High Commission of the applicant's country.

PROGRAMME FOR INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH LINKAGES (P.I.R.L.).

Program aimed at promoting and facilitating international collaborative research by providing assistance to teams of researchers from Canada and one or more countries where Canadian Studies are represented. Specifically, the PIRL funds research seminars or other forms of research linkages.

To be eligible, proposals must be submitted by at least two teams of researchers, including one from Canada, who are already funded and whose research is in the area of Canadian Studies.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Executive Director, International Council for Canadian Studies, 2 Daly Avenue, Ottawa, Canada K1N 6E2

BOURSES DE RECHERCHE (B.R.).

Programme qui a pour but de promouvoir la connaissance et la compréhension du Canada. Aide les universitaires à entreprendre des projets de recherche à court terme sur le Canada ou sur les relations entre le Canada et le pays des candidats. Les bourses contribuent aux frais directs liés à un projet de recherche, y compris les coûts d'un voyage au Canada, s'il y a lieu (transport et allocation de séjour).

Adresser toute demande de renseignement à l'ambassade ou au haut-commissariat du Canada du pays de résidence du candidat.

PROGRAMME D'AIDE AUX RESEAUX DE RECHERCHE INTERNATIONAUX (P.A.R.R.I.).

Ce programme facilite la formation de réseaux de recherche internationaux en offrant une aide financière à des équipes de chercheurs qui doivent être basées au Canada et dans un ou plusieurs des pays où l'on trouve des programmes d'études canadiennes. Le P.A.R.R.I. subventionne plus particulièrement les séminaires de recherche et autres formes d'échanges de résultats de recherche.

Pour être admissible, une demande doit être soumise par un minimum de deux équipes, dont l'une est basée au Canada. Ces équipes doivent être déjà bien établies au moment de faire la demande, et elles doivent travailler dans le domaine des études canadiennes.

Adresser toute demande de renseignement au Directeur général, Conseil international d'études canadiennes, 2 avenue Daly, Ottawa, Canada K1N 6E2.

2. Programmes available to institutions

LIBRARY SUPPORT PROGRAMME.

Programme designed to assist universities in countries where Canadian Studies are found to strengthen their Canadiana library holdings in order to support their teaching and research. Applications are made by university libraries or Canadian Studies Programmes or Centres. Depending on the applicant's country, one of the following form of support will be provided: outright grant, matching grant, book donation.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy or High Commission of the applicant's country.

CULTURAL PERSONALITIES EXCHANGE PROGRAMME (C.P.E.P.).

Programme open only to member associations of the International Council for Canadian Studies outside Canada. It provides associations with funds to enable them to invite up to two Canadian personalities to participate in the Association's regular conference as speakers or resource persons.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy or High Commission of the Association's country.

THIRD COUNTRY CONFERENCE SPEAKER TRAVEL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMME.

Programme available only to member associations of the International Council for Canadian Studies. It aims at facilitating the participation of scholars from a third country (i.e. other than Canada or the Association's own country) in major conferences of associations for Canadian Studies. Members of executive committees of associations are not eligible to receive funds from this programme.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Director of Administration and Programmes, International Council for

2. Programmes institutionnels.

PROGRAMME DE SOUTIEN AUX BIBLIOTHEQUES.

Programme destiné à aider les universités des pays où l'on trouve des études canadiennes à enrichir leur collection de Canadiana, pour mieux soutenir l'enseignement et la recherche. Les demandes doivent être soumises par les bibliothèques ou par les programmes et centres d'études canadiennes. Selon le pays demandeur, l'aide octroyée pourra prendre l'une des trois formes suivantes: subvention sans condition; subvention de contrepartie; don de livres.

Adresser toute demande de renseignement à l'ambassade ou au haut-commissariat du Canada du pays de résidence du demandeur.

PROGRAMME D'ECHANGE DE PERSONNALITES DU SECTEUR CULTUREL (P.E.P.S.E.C.).

Programme réservé aux associations d'études canadiennes hors du Canada qui sont membres du Conseil international d'études canadiennes. Le programme offre des fonds pour inviter un maximum de deux personnalités canadiennes aux congrès organisés par les associations, soit comme conférenciers, soit à titre de personnes-ressources.

Adresser toute demande de renseignement à l'ambassade ou au haut-commissariat du Canada du pays de résidence du demandeur.

PROGRAMME D'AIDE AUX CONFERENCIERS DE CONGRES D'ETUDES CANADIENNES (P.A.C.C.E.C.).

Programme réservé aux associations membres du Conseil international d'études canadiennes. Il permet à une association d'inviter des conférenciers (qui ne peuvent pas être des résidents du Canada) à participer à son congrès annuel (ou biennal, ou triennal). Les membres des bureaux de direction des associations ne peuvent être invités dans le cadre de ce programme.

Adresser toute demande de renseignement au Directeur de l'administration et des programmes, Canadian Studies, 2 Daly Avenue, Ottawa, Canada K1N 6E2.

CANADIAN STUDIES TRAVELLING BOOK DISPLAY.

A collection of approximately 300 academic books in English and French is assembled every year by the Association for the Export of Canadian Books. The collection is available for use at Canadian Studies events around the world at no cost to the organizers of the event. The International Council for Canadian Studies is responsible for scheduling the venues for the Travelling Book Display.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Librarian, International Council for Canadian Studies, 2 Daly Avenue, Ottawa, Canada K1N 6E2.

INSTITUTIONAL RESEARCH PROGRAMME (I.R.P.)

Programme designed to assist institutions of higher education to undertake major team research projects related to Canada. The research project will contribute to the development of Canadian Studies at the institution(s) involved and enrich the literature in the field. Awards assist with direct costs of research and, if necessary, travel to and living expenses in Canada.

Applications are submitted by the principal investigator and must be endorsed by the institution. This programme is available only in Australia, Japan, the United Kingdom and the U.S.A.

le Japon. Il y a trois types de bourse: meilleur manuscrit rédigé en japonais; meilleure traduction en japonais d'un ouvrage d'auteur canadien; meilleur manuscrit résultant d'une recherche conjointe.

Adresser les demandes de renseignements à l'ambassade du Canada, 3-38 Akasaka 7-chome Minato-ku, Tokyo 107, Japon.

BOURSES DE RECHERCHE SENIOR EN ETUDES CANADIENNES.

Programme offert seulement aux Etats-Unis. Offre à des chercheurs senior une aide financière afin de mener et de publier une recherche d'envergure qui contribuera de façon significative au développement des études canadiennes aux E.U. Un petit nombre de bourses sont offertes, à des chercheurs ayant déjà fait leurs preuves dans l'enseignement, la recherche et la publication.

Adresser les demandes de renseignements à l'ambassade du Canada à Washington (Academic Relations, 501 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20001, U.S.A.).

2. Programmes institutionnels

BOURSES DE RECHERCHE POUR LES UNIVERSITES (B.R.U.).

Programme destiné à aider les établissements d'enseignement supérieur à mettre sur pied des équipes de recherche qui travaillent sur des projets d'envergure liés au Canada. Le projet doit contribuer au développement des études canadiennes à l'établissement d'enseignement qui fait la demande, et faire avancer les connaissances dans le domaine. Les subventions permettent de payer les coûts directs de la recherche et, si nécessaire, les frais de voyage et de séjour au Canada.

Les demandes sont soumises par un chercheur principal, et elles doivent être endossées par l'établissement. Ce programme est offert seulement en Australie, au Japon, au Royaume-Uni et aux Etats-Unis.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy or High Commission of the applicant's country.

PROGRAMME DEVELOPMENT GRANTS (P.D.G.).

Programme aimed at supporting academic activities which will contribute to the development or expansion of a Canadian Studies programme at the institution applying for the grant. Eligible activities include conferences, symposia, lecture series, publication of proceedings and scholarly exchanges.

Applications are submitted by the principal manager (organizer) and must be endorsed by the institution. This programme is available only in Japan and in the U.S.A.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy of the applicant's country.

CONFERENCE GRANT PROGRAMME.

The purpose of this programme is to support major conferences addressing important and timely issues about Canada or the Canada-USA relationship.

This programme is available only in the USA.

Requests for information and applications should be addressed to the Canadian Embassy, Academic Relations, 501 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20001.

Adresser toute demande de renseignement à l'ambassade ou au haut-commissariat du Canada du pays de résidence du demandeur.

SUBVENTIONS POUR LE DEVELOPPEMENT DE PROGRAMMES D'ETUDES CANADIENNES (S.D.P.E.C.).

Programme ayant pour but d'encourager la tenue d'activités universitaires multidisciplinaires qui favorisent le développement d'un programme d'études canadiennes au sein d'un établissement d'enseignement supérieur. Activités admissibles: colloques, symposia, congrès, publications, échanges universitaires avec le Canada.

L'organisateur principal doit soumettre la demande, qui doit en outre être endossée par l'établissement. Ce programme n'est disponible qu'au Japon et aux Etats-Unis.

Adresser toute demande de renseignements à l'ambassade du Canada du pays concerné.

PROGRAMME D'AIDE AUX CONGRES.

L'objectif de ce programme est de permettre l'organisation de grands congrès, sur des sujets importants concernant le Canada ou les relations canado-américaines.

Ce programme n'est disponible qu'aux Etats-Unis.

Adresser les demandes de renseignements à l'ambassade du Canada à Washington (Academic Relations, 501 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20001, U.S.A.).

AWARDS AND DISTINCTIONS IN CANADIAN STUDIES
PRIX ET DISTINCTIONS DANS LE DOMAINE DES ETUDES CANADIENNES

Some Canadian Studies associations, and the International Council for Canadian Studies, offer honours and awards. The following is a list of awards and honours drawn to our attention by member associations. Each entry provides a short description of the award or honour and the name, address and telephone and fax numbers of a contact person.

Le Conseil international d'études canadiennes, de même que certaines associations, offrent des prix et distinctions en études canadiennes. Nous avons compilé, à partir des réponses reçues des diverses associations membres du CIEC, une liste de ces prix et distinctions. Chacune des rubriques de ce chapitre fournit une très brève description du prix ou de la distinction et donne le nom, l'adresse et les numéros de téléphone et de télécopieur d'une personne-contact.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN CANADIAN STUDIES
INITIATIVES RECENTES EN ETUDES CANADIENNES

This chapter is devoted to countries where Canadian Studies are either a rather new development, like in Brazil or Venezuela, or still are not formally organized, like in Pakistan or Poland. In all cases but two (Argentina and Thailand), the information has been provided by a resource person who is knowledgeable about the country's academic organization and who has been involved for a number of years in Canadian Studies.

Two of the eight countries reviewed in this chapter have recently established a Canadian Studies Association: Brazil and Venezuela. These associations, however, are still very new and have not yet applied for membership in the International Council for Canadian Studies, and for this reason they have not been included in chapter 2 with the other associations.

In order to facilitate consultation, the entries in this chapter are organized alphabetically, by country name.

On trouvera dans ce chapitre des informations sur les études canadiennes dans divers pays où elles constituent une initiative récente, comme au Brésil ou au Venezuela, ou encore dans des pays où les activités dans ce domaine sont encore peu développées, comme en Thaïlande ou au Pakistan. Dans tous les cas sauf deux (Argentine et Thaïlande), les informations nous ont été communiquées par des personnes-ressources des pays concernés qui en connaissaient bien la structure universitaire et qui étaient impliquées depuis plusieurs années dans les études canadiennes.

Deux des huit pays traités dans ce chapitre ont créé récemment des associations d'études canadiennes: le Brésil et le Venezuela. Ces associations en sont encore au stade de l'organisation, et elles ne font pas encore partie du Conseil international d'études canadiennes; c'est pourquoi on les trouve dans ce chapitre, plutôt qu'au chapitre 2, avec les autres associations d'études canadiennes.

Les données de ce chapitre ont été classées par ordre alphabétique des noms de pays, afin de faciliter la consultation.

ARGENTINA / ARGENTINE

The course of Canadian studies in Argentina has followed an unusual path. The first organized efforts to establish Canadian studies in Argentina began about three years ago, although the country has demonstrated an interest in Canada for several years through projects sponsored by the Organisation Universitaire Interaméricaine (OUI), for example.

In fact, Canadian studies were launched through the almost simultaneous creation of four centres at Rosario, Cordoba, Mendoza and Buenos Aires universities. But the Argentinean difference goes farther than that: the centres made it their mission to promote culture as well as academic activities. Thus, the centres are not only a clearinghouse for general information on Canada and a meeting place for persons interested in cultural and artistic events imported from Canada or produced locally, they also serve to coordinate Canada-related academic activities, both with respect to courses and seminars offered by Argentinean professors and conferences by visiting academics from Canada.

The first four centres are now joined by the La Plata and Tucuman centres. Cooperation between these centres, already established for such things as visits by Canadian conference speakers, is expected to increase. All the centres plan to share their Argentinean expertise on Canada through seminars or Canadian studies programs offered in other academic areas. In fact, the existence of this network and the geographic location of Buenos Aires and Tucuman (more than 10% of the student population in the latter university come from neighbouring countries) gives Canadian studies a foothold in Uruguay (Montevideo), Paraguay and Peru.

In the mid-term, we can expect to see a Canadian studies association be created in Argentina. The appropriate discussions are already underway, though it remains to be determined whether, among other things, the association will represent the centres first -- and through them individual members, whether academics or interested members of the public -- or academics directly and the centres as institutional members.

Les études canadiennes ont connu un cheminement original en Argentine. Les premiers développements structurés des études canadiennes y remontent à environ trois ans, bien que l'intérêt pour le Canada s'y soit manifesté depuis plusieurs années, par exemple dans le cadre de projets de l'Organisation Universitaire Interaméricaine (OUI).

C'est par la création quasi simultanée de quatre centres, aux universités de Rosario, Cordoba, Mendoza et Buenos Aires, qu'ont démarré les études canadiennes en Argentine. Mais l'originalité argentine ne s'arrête pas là: les centres se sont donné une mission de diffusion culturelle tout autant que de promotion d'activités universitaires. C'est ainsi que, d'une part, les centres servent de sources de renseignements généraux sur le Canada et de lieux de rencontres pour la population intéressée à des manifestations culturelles et artistiques sur le Canada, et d'autre part, ils agissent comme centres de coordination d'activités universitaires portant sur le Canada: cours ou séminaires offerts par des professeurs argentins, conférences d'universitaires canadiens de passage, recherches, etc.

Aux quatre premiers centres sont venus s'ajouter ceux de La Plata et de Tucuman. La collaboration entre les centres, qui se manifeste déjà, par exemple lors des tournées de conférenciers canadiens, est appelée à s'intensifier. Ainsi, on envisage le regroupement des compétences sur le Canada pour offrir des séminaires ou programmes d'études canadiennes dans diverses universités d'Argentine. En fait, l'existence de ce réseau de centres et leur situation géographique, en particulier pour Buenos Aires et Tucuman (plus de 10% de la population étudiante à cette dernière université provient des pays avoisinants), font que les études canadiennes débordent du côté de l'Uruguay (Montevideo), du Paraguay et du Pérou.

On peut s'attendre, à moyen terme, à ce qu'une association d'études canadiennes voie le jour en Argentine. Des discussions sont déjà amorcées en ce sens: il reste à savoir si cette association regroupera les centres d'abord et par eux, les membres individuels de ces centres -- universitaires et grand public intéressé au Canada -- ou si elle recrutera directement les universitaires, intégrant ensuite les centres à titre de membres institutionnels.

BRAZIL / BRESIL

Bilateral relations between Brazil and Canada have been active for over a century. The Canadian presence has made significant contributions to the country's development, and in recent years, Canadian studies have naturally grown, as Canada presents an enormous cultural and economic potential.

In order to stimulate interest among the academic community and promote better understanding of comparative Canadian studies by encouraging programs of exchange and effective cooperation between the two countries, the establishment of an association for Canadian studies in Brazil was the culmination of all the past efforts.

The Brazilian Association of Canadian Studies (ABECAN is the portuguese acronym) was founded April 30, 1991, at the Pontifical Catholic University of Parana, situated in Curitiba, the State's capital. The inaugural congress was attended by more than 180 participants, 96 of whom were the founding members of the Association. The board of directors was made up of thirteen members elected for a two-year mandate.

For the first biennium, professor José Antônio Fedalto, from the Pontifical Catholic University of Parana is the president and professor Sônia Oliveira Almeida, from Fluminense Federal University, Rio de Janeiro, is the vice-president.

There are hundreds of potential members among the community interested in Canadian studies across the country. The Association for Canadian Studies in Brazil is established over an already existing active program of academic cooperation between scholars in both countries which will now be facilitated by the Association.

One example of this cooperation is the Inter-American University Cooperation Program aimed at improving the training of senior university administrators. The Program is sponsored by OUI - Organisation Universitaire Interaméricaine - in Québec. At the end of its seventh year of continuous operation, 119 Brazilian senior university authorities

Le Brésil et le Canada entretiennent des relations suivies depuis déjà plus d'un siècle. Le Canada a participé de plain-pied au développement du Brésil, et il demeure un partenaire avec lequel les possibilités de coopération économique et culturelle sont pratiquement sans limites. Il était donc naturel que se développent les études sur le Canada, au cours des dernières années.

La fondation d'une association d'études canadiennes au Brésil constitue en quelque sorte l'aboutissement logique des efforts passés, et le début d'une nouvelle ère dans les relations universitaires entre les deux pays, en ce sens qu'elle donnera un nouvel élan aux programmes d'échange et de coopération existants.

L'Association brésilienne d'études canadiennes (ABECAN) a été fondée le 30 avril 1991 à l'Université catholique pontificale du Parana, située à Curitiba, la capitale de l'Etat du Parana. Plus de 180 personnes participèrent au congrès de fondation, et une centaine d'entre elles acceptèrent de devenir membres fondateurs de l'association. Un conseil d'administration de treize membres fut élu, pour un mandat initial de deux ans.

Le président, pendant ces deux premières années, sera le professeur José Antônio Fedalto, de l'Université catholique pontificale du Parana, et le professeur Sônia Oliveira Almeida, de l'Université fédérale Fluminense, à Rio de Janeiro, assumera la vice-présidence.

Le bassin de recrutement de l'association est très important, des centaines d'universitaires brésiliens s'intéressant au Canada. Le recrutement sera d'autant plus facile que les activités de l'association viendront renforcer le réseau existant de relations entre les universitaires des deux pays.

Le Programme interaméricain de coopération universitaire, parrainé par l'OUI (Organisation universitaire interaméricaine), constitue un exemple des relations existant entre les deux pays. Depuis sept ans, le Programme a permis à 119 administrateurs d'universités brésiliennes de prendre have taken the programme which includes theoretical courses on university management and practical internship held in Canadian institutions.

One of the challenges now facing the ABECAN is to consolidate the presence of the Canadian culture in the vastness of Brazilian territory. To this end, the Association is considering the creation of five Centres of Canadian Studies distributed regionally. The first one was recently opened at Fluminense Federal University in Rio de Janeiro, supported by the long-lasting relationship existing between this institution and the Canadian Embassy through the National Film Board of Canada. The second centre is being implanted at Pontifical Catholic University of Parana, for the institution now plays an important role as the ABECAN's headquarters. The three other centres will be created within the next few years.

Following its establishment, ABECAN must now define more precisely its role and future endeavours. The list of the academics who somehow interact under the umbrella of Canadian Studies is being compiled. We are confident that the concerted efforts of the Brazilian academic community will ensure the growth of a very strong association and the development of Canadian studies in South-America.

des cours et de suivre des stages dans le domaine de l'administration universitaire au Canada.

L'un des grands défis auxquels l'ABECAN fait maintenant face consiste à assurer la présence de la culture canadienne sur l'ensemble de l'immense territoire brésilien. L'association entend créer à cette fin cinq centres d'études canadiennes, répartis dans les différentes régions. Un premier centre a été ouvert récemment à l'Université fédérale Fluminense, à Rio de Janeiro: le terrain avait déjà été préparé par l'excellente collaboration qui existait entre l'université, l'ambassade du Canada et l'Office national du film du Canada. Le deuxième centre est en voie de formation, à l'Université catholique pontificale du Parana, qui est appelée à jouer un rôle important, du fait qu'elle abrite le secrétariat de l'ABECAN. Les trois autres centres seront créés au cours des prochaines années.

Un autre défi pour l'Association sera d'entreprendre une réflexion en profondeur sur son mandat et ses objectifs généraux. Dans l'immédiat, on a entrepris la compilation d'un répertoire des universitaires intéressés aux études canadiennes. Tout porte à croire qu'avec la collaboration de la communauté universitaire brésilienne, l'Association connaîtra une croissance rapide, qui renforcera les études canadiennes dans l'ensemble de l'Amérique du Sud.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA / TCHECOSLOVAQUIE

Canadian Studies have been slow to take off in Czechoslovakia. This has not been because of any lack of interest in Canada on the part of Czechs or Slovaks - on the contrary, Canada and Canadians are almost embarrassingly popular here - but reflects rather the bureaucratic repression that existed in the country in the past. To a far greater extent than in other Central European socialist bloc countries, contacts with the West were discouraged. Explicit (prior) permission, for example, was required from one's employer merely to speak with someone from a Western embassy. Under these conditions, and lacking any tradition to build on (something that was not true in the case of the study of British and American literatures), Canadian Studies could hardly flourish.

Some individual works of Canadian literature were occasionally included in a few courses, especially those on «World Literature» or «Commonwealth/New Literatures». This was the case in, for example, Bratislava, where two teachers in the English Department were enthusiastic readers of Canadian literature. In addition, teachers sometimes encouraged students to choose Canadian authors for the 70-page final-year dissertation with which undergraduates in Czechoslovakia finish their studies.

The first regular course in Canadian literature was offered at Masaryk University in Brno beginning in 1985; the teacher was a Canadian member of the English Department who was in fact married to a Czech and resident in the country. This was a one-year course, offered to students in the upper years. At first it was a survey course of English Canadian literature, but in the course of time it has changed into a free-ranging course that includes Francophone literature (in English translation) as well as readings in other fields - in other words, a mini Canadian Studies course. Such a broadly-based course makes sense in this country, for the context of Canadian literature - the society, the land, the history it reflects - is largely unfamiliar to the ordinary Czech or Slovak student.

The situation changed radically following the dramatic events of November 1989, when Czechoslovakia's «Velvet Revolution» caught the imagination of so many people throughout the world.

La lenteur avec laquelle les études canadiennes se sont développées en Tchécoslovaquie n'est certes pas due à un manque d'intérêt envers le Canada, bien au contraire: le Canada et les Canadiens y sont extrêmement populaires. On doit plutôt attribuer cet état de fait à la répression bureaucratique qui a marqué le passé récent du pays. Plus que partout ailleurs en Europe de l'est, il était difficile, voire impossible d'établir des contacts avec les pays occidentaux: une permission formelle de l'employeur était exigée, par exemple, simplement pour pouvoir parler à un membre d'une ambassade occidentale. Compte tenu de cette situation, et de l'absence de traditions bien établies (ce qui n'était pas le cas, par exemple, pour les littératures anglaise et américaine), il n'est pas surprenant que les études canadiennes n'aient pas connu un grand développement.

Quelques cours consacrés à la littérature mondiale, ou encore à la littérature du Commonwealth et à la nouvelle littérature faisaient parfois place à l'étude de quelques auteurs canadiens. Ce fut le cas à Bratislava, où deux des professeurs du département d'anglais étaient friands de littérature canadienne. En outre, certains professeurs encourageaient parfois leurs étudiants à choisir des auteurs canadiens comme sujets de thèse de fins d'études de premier cycle.

Ce n'est toutefois qu'en 1985 que le premier cours de littérature canadienne fut offert, à l'Université Masaryk de Brno, par un professeur d'origine canadienne, marié à une tchèque, et résidant en Tchécoslovaquie. Il s'agissait d'un cours d'un an, offert aux étudiants de dernière année. Consacré à l'origine à un survol de la littérature anglophone du Canada, le cours a depuis évolué, pour devenir un mini-cours d'études canadiennes, faisant place à la littérature francophone (en traduction anglaise, cependant) et à d'autres aspects de la société canadienne. Un tel cours général, qui permet l'étude de la littérature et de son contexte socio-économique, est bien adapté à la réalité du pays, car le Canada est encore peu connu de l'étudiant moyen, tchèque ou slovaque.

La situation des études canadiennes change du tout au tout à la suite de la célèbre révolution de velours de novembre 1989. Le gouvernement commence alors à accorder un soutien plus généreux aux

As far as Canadian studies were concerned, this was reflected in increased government support for university programmes. In 1990 large grants were made to Masaryk University in Brno to expand its Canadian Studies programme, and to Charles University in Prague to begin such a programme. At the latter university these funds were used to send one member of the English Department on an introductory trip to Canada, and to purchase a basic collection of books (mostly in English Canadian literature). In the 1990/91 academic year a first, introductory course in Canadian literature (with excursions into other areas) was offered by the English Department. At Masaryk University in Brno, the collection of books was expanded with major purchases in Anglophone and Francophone literatures, history, political science, geography and the arts, the aim being to establish the first (though still modest) broad Canadian Studies collection in the country. During the year, courses were offered in the English Department on «Immigrant Voices» and «Crossing the Land», while the History Department offered a one-term lecture course on Canadian history (seemingly a first for Czechoslovakia). In both Brno and Prague, additional lectures on a wide range of topics were given by Canadian teachers and scholars who were either working in Czechoslovakia or passing through the country.

Courses of the kind outlined above will again be offered at both Brno and Prague Universities in the 1991/92 academic year. In addition, it is expected that at least a few papers on Canadian topics will be read at the Third Conference of Czechoslovak Anglicists, to be held in Brno in September 1992. Work is also going ahead on the Canadian entries for the extensive dictionary of English-language writers to be published by Academia in two years' time.

Canadian Studies programmes and courses are offered, or being prepared, at the following two universities: Masaryk University (A. Nováka 1, 660 88 Brno), where the following scholars are involved: Don Sparling (Chair, Department of English and American Studies); Maximilián Strmiska (Department of History); Petr Kylousek (Department of Romance Languages and Literatures). Charles University (nám. Jana Palacha 110 00 Praha), with Miroslav Jindra (Department of English and American Studies).

universités: l'Université Masaryk de Brno reçut d'importantes subventions pour développer son programme d'études canadiennes, et l'université Charles de Prague put créer son propre programme. Les fonds reçus par l'Université Charles furent utilisés pour envoyer un professeur en voyage d'études au Canada et pour monter une collection de Canadiana, surtout en littérature canadienne anglaise; et en 1990-1991, un premier cours de littérature canadienne était offert par le département d'anglais de l'Université Charles. A l'Université Masaryk, le fonds de Canadiana fut considérablement enrichi dans les secteurs de la littérature, anglophone et francophone, de l'histoire, de la science politique, de la géographie et des arts. L'objectif visé était de créer une première collection, solide, encore que modeste, sur le Canada. En 1990-1991, les départements d'anglais et d'histoire offrirent des cours sur le Canada. En outre, aussi bien à Brno qu'à Prague, un large éventail de cours et de conférences sur le Canada furent donnés par des chercheurs qui faisaient un séjour de recherche, ou simplement qui passaient en Tchécoslovaquie.

Des cours similaires seront offerts à Brno et à Prague en 1991-1992. De plus, quelques-unes des communications présentées au Congrès des anglicistes tchécoslovaques, qui se tiendra à Brno en septembre 1992, porteront sur le Canada. Enfin, le monumental dictionnaire des écrivains de langue anglaise, qui sera publié par l'Académie en 1993, fera place aux auteurs canadiens.

Les universités suivantes offrent, ou se préparent à offrir des cours sur le Canada: Université Masaryk (A. Nováka 1, 660 88 Brno), où enseignent les chercheurs suivants: Don Sparling (Directeur, Département d'études anglaises et américaines); Maximilián Strmiska (Département d'histoire); Petr Kylousek (Département de langues et littératures romanes). Université Charles (nám. Jana Palacha, 110 00 Praha), où enseigne le professeur Miroslav Jindra (Département d'études anglaises et américaines).

In addition, English Canadian literature is included in courses at Bratislava: J.A. Komensky University (Gondova 2, 818 01 Bratislava), with Danusca Brencicová (Department of English and American Studies).

De plus, des cours de littérature canadienne anglaise sont offerts à Bratislava: Université J.A. Komensky (Gondova 2, 818 01 Bratislava), par le professeur Danusca Brencicová (Département d'études anglaises et américaines).

HUNGARY / HONGRIE

Canadian Studies in Hungary go back to 1977, when the first doctorate was granted by Eötvös University of Budapest for a thesis on Hugh MacLennan (Twentieth Century Canada in the Novels of Hugh MacLennan, by Anna Jakabfi). Shortly after (1979), the English Department of the Faculty of Arts of Eötvös University offered the first course on Canadian literature. Every year since, a course on Canadian literature or Canadian history and culture has been offered by Anna Jakabfi, and a number of thesis completed on authors such as: Stephen Leacock, Mordecai Richler, Hugh MacLennan, Gabrielle Roy and Frederick Philip Grove.

In 1984, under the leadership of Judit Molnár, a course on Canadian literature was established by the English Department of Kossuth University, in Debrecen. Molnar was also instrumental in creating the first Canadian Studies Centre in Hungary, at Kossuth University.

Katalin Kürtösi, of the Department for Comparative Literary Studies at A. József University, in Szeged, initiated in 1984 a course in comparative literature, focusing on Canadian drama.

Québec literature is also a subject of study at Pécs University, where A. Vigh and his colleagues teach Québec linguistics and literature.

In Budapest, both the Technical University and the University of Economics offer courses on Canadian culture and literature. The latter is also establishing a Canadian Studies Centre under the directorship of Tibor Olah.

At all the above mentioned universities, the development of Canadian Studies has been enormously helped by the substantial bookgrants of the Canadian Government.

Les études canadiennes en Hongrie remontent à 1977, date à laquelle l'université Eötvös de Budapest décerna le premier doctorat dans le domaine, pour une thèse sur Hugh MacLennan (Twentieth Century Canada in the Novels of Hugh MacLennan, par Anna Jakabfi). Peu après (1979), le département d'anglais de la Faculté des arts de l'Université Eötvös inscrivait au programme le premier cours de littérature canadienne. Chaque année depuis lors, Anna Jakabfi a dispensé un cours sur la littérature ou la civilisation canadienne, et plusieurs thèses ont été déposées sur des auteurs canadiens tels que Stephen Leacock, Mordecai Richler, Hugh MacLennan, Gabrielle Roy et Frederick Philip Grove.

En 1984, grâce aux efforts déployés par Judit Molnár, le département d'anglais de l'Université Kossuth, de Debrecen, mettait au programme un cours sur la littérature canadienne, et peu après, l'Université Kossuth établissait le premier Centre d'études canadiennes en Hongrie.

C'est également en 1984 que fut inscrit au programme un cours de littérature comparée, faisant une large place au théâtre canadien, au département de littérature comparée de l'Université A. József, de Szeged. Le Katalin Kürtösi en est le titulaire.

L'Université de Pécs se spécialise pour sa part en littérature et linguistique québécoises, enseignées par le A. Vigh et ses collègues.

A Budapest, des cours de littérature et de civilisation canadiennes sont offerts par l'Université technique et par l'Université d'économie. Cette dernière institution est en train d'établir, sous la direction du Tibor Olah, un Centre d'études canadiennes.

Il convient de souligner à quel point les dons de livres consentis par le Gouvernement canadien ont contribué au développement des études canadiennes en Hongrie.

Finally, it should be mentioned that Canadianists in Hungary are discussing the establishment of a Canadian and Québec Cultural Centre in Budapest.

PAKISTAN

Canadian studies in Pakistan is very new and underdeveloped as a field. The Area Study Centre for Africa, North & South America, which was founded in 1979, is the only institution engaged in the study of Canada. The Centre has published the first book in Pakistan to deal with any aspect of Canada and the first anywhere dealing exclusively with Pakistan-Canada Relations: M. Raziullah Azmi, Pakistan-Canada Relations, 1947-82: A Short Survey, Islamabad: Area Study Centre, 1983, 181 p.

The Centre organized a National Seminar on Pakistan-Canada Relations in May 1991 in which prominent scholars and journalists from all over Pakistan presented papers.

Beginning with the academic year 1991, the Centre has introduced a course on Canadian foreign policy at the Master's level. Two students are presently writing their theses in the field of Canadian studies. The Centre plans to publish a history of Pakistan-Canada relations early next year.

Le domaine des études canadiennes est encore très neuf et peu développé au Pakistan. Le seul centre qui soit engagé dans l'étude du Canada est le Area Study Centre for Africa, North and South America, qui a été fondé en 1979. Ce centre est responsable de la publication du seul livre au Pakistan qui traite d'un aspect quelconque du Canada et qui soit consacré exclusivement aux relations entre les deux pays (M. Raziullah AZMI, Pakistan-Canada Relations, 1947-1982: A Short Survey, Islamabad: Area Studies Centre, 1983. 181p.).

En mai 1991, un Séminaire sur les relations Pakistan-Canada, organisé par le Centre, rassemblait plusieurs chercheurs senior et des journalistes de toutes les régions du pays.

C'est également en 1991 que le Centre a introduit dans le programme de maîtrise un cours sur la politique extérieure du Canada. Deux étudiants sont présentement inscrits en rédaction de thèse en études canadiennes, et le Centre compte publier dès l'année prochaine une histoire des relations Pakistan-Canada.

POLAND / POLOGNE

Canadian Studies in Poland are rather neglected and limited in scope up to now. A booklet entitled «Stany Zjednoczone i Kanada w pismiennictwie polskim» [United States and Canada in Polish Scholarly Publications] lists 68 books on Canada published in Poland in the period 1944-1986. Only about half of them are scholarly books. The rest are rather of journalistic and popular character.

There is no centre of Canadian studies in Poland. The only comprehensive and long term programme of Canadian studies exists since 1985 in the Polish Institute of International Affairs in the Department of North American Studies. The research of one person [Marian Spalinski] is devoted fully to Canadian studies; also one other person occasionally works on economic problems of Canada. In the last few years this programme concentrated mainly on research on Canadian foreign policy; it focuses on the Canadian political and legal system. The Head of the North American Studies Department prof. Longin Pastusiak published more than 20 scholarly articles dealing with Canadian foreign policy, US-Canadian relations and Polish-canadian relations. Currently he is working on a two volume book on Polish-Canadian relations from 1945 to the present. The first volume Polish-Canadian Relations 1945-1961 will be published in 1992.

Also in the 1970s, the Polish Institute of International Affairs published a book entitled «Wspolczesna Kanada» [Contemporary Canada] containing 13 articles written by Canadian and Polish scholars, covering different aspects of Canadian life: international and internal policy, culture, economy, social structure etc.

There are no periodicals or journals on Canadian Studies in Poland; however the bi-monthly journal «Zeszyty Amerykanistyczne» [American Studies Papers] published by the Polish Institute of International Affairs since 1989 contains several scholarly articles on Canada.

The Polish Institute of International Affairs and the Poland-Canada Society are now discussing the possibility of publishing twice or three times a year a Jusqu'à présent, les études canadiennes constituent un domaine plutôt négligé en Pologne. Une étude intitulée Stany zjednoczone i Kanada w pismiennictwie polskim [Les publications sur les Etats-Unis et le Canada] recense 68 ouvrages sur le Canada publiés en Pologne de 1944 à 1986. La moitié de ces ouvrages peuvent être considérés comme des publications scientifiques, le reste étant plutôt des ouvrages de type journalistique ou de vulgarisation.

Il n'existe pas de centre d'études canadiennes en Pologne. Le seul programme cohérent d'études canadiennes est offert, depuis 1985, par l'Institut polonais des affaires internationales, affilié au Département d'études nord-américaines de l'Université de Varsovie. Seul le professeur Marian Spalinski se consacre exclusivement aux études canadiennes; un autre chercheur s'intéresse aux questions économiques canadiennes. L'orientation générale de ce programme, au cours des dernières années, a porté surtout sur la politique étrangère du Canada, et sur le système politique et juridique. Le directeur du Département d'Etudes nord-américaines, le professeur Longin Pastusiak, a publié plus de 20 articles sur la politique étrangère du Canada, les relations Canada-Etats-Unis, et les relations Canada-Pologne. Il prépare un ouvrage en deux tomes sur ce dernier thème, de 1945 à nos jours. Le premier tome, Polish-Canadian Relations 1945-1961 paraîtra en 1992.

L'Institut polonais des affaires internationales a également publié dans les années 1970 un recueil d'articles de chercheurs polonais et canadiens portant sur divers aspects de la société canadienne: politique interne et relations internationales, culture, économie, structure sociale, etc.: Wspolczesna Kanada [Le Canada contemporain].

Bien qu'il n'existe pas en Pologne de revue exclusivement consacrée au Canada, la revue bimensuelle Zeszyty Amerykanistyczne [Etudes américaines], publiée par l'Institut polonais des affaires internationales, contient depuis 1989 quelques articles sur le Canada.

Des discussions sont présentement en cours entre l'Institut et la Société Pologne-Canada pour fonder une revue d'études canadiennes en Pologne, qui Journal of Canadian Studies in Poland. Many members of the Poland-Canada Society work in universities, research institutes and in the media, and a need for such publication is evident. The Poland-Canada Society also plans to establish a section on Canadian Studies.

The following scholars devote at least part of their research interest to Canadian affairs: prof. Adam Bromke [a former dean at McMaster University in Canada], at present Committee on Poland in XXI Century of the Polish Academy of Sciences-Warsaw; prof. Stanislas Ladyka, Central School of Commerce, Warsaw; prof. Longin Pastusiak, Head of the Department of North American Studies, Polish Institute of International Affairs, Warsaw; Marian Spalinski, Polish Institute of International Affairs, Warsaw; prof. Henryk Zins, Wroclaw University, Wroclaw; prof. Jeroslaw Sokol, Mickiewicz University, Warsaw.

serait publiée deux à trois fois par an. Le nombre de membres de la Société dans les universités, les instituts de recherche et les média justifient largement la publication d'une telle revue. La Société Pologne-Canada envisage aussi de former une association d'études canadiennes.

Les chercheurs suivants se consacrent, au moins partiellement, à l'étude du Canada: prof. Adam Bromke [ancien doyen de McMaster University, au Canada], présentement membre du Comité sur la Pologne au XXIe siècle de l'Académie des Sciences de Varsovie; prof. Stanislas Ladyka, Ecole centrale de commerce de Varsovie; prof. Longin Pastusiak, Directeur du département d'études nord-américaines de l'Institut polonais des affaires internationales, Varsovie; Marian Spalinski, Institut polonais des affaires internationales, Varsovie; prof. Henryk Zins, Université de Wroclaw; prof. Jeroslaw Sokol, Université Mickiewicz, Varsovie.

THAILAND / THAILANDE

Canadian Studies in Thailand are limited, at the present time, to the Canadian Studies Programme of Chulalongkorn University. The programme was established in 1982, with the following objectives: 1) to promote a better understanding of Canadian affairs through the acquisition of documents on Canadian Studies; 2) to promote comparative research on Thailand and Canada; 3) to stimulate interest among Thai scholars in the study of Thai-Canadian relations in the context of North American-ASEAN relations and North-South dialogue.

Activities of the programme so far have been in the area of acquisition of research and other materials on Canada, seminars and lectures, and publications.

Areas of research of the Programme are Thai-Canadian relations and Canadian policy towards the Third World.

A l'heure actuelle, les études canadiennes en Thaïlande ne sont présentes qu'à l'Université Chulalongkorn, de Bangkok. Le Programme d'études canadiennes qui y a été créé en 1982 a pour objectifs: 1) de favoriser une meilleure compréhension des réalités canadiennes par l'acquisition de matériel documentaire sur le Canada; 2) de faciliter les recherches comparatives sur la Thaïlande et le Canada; 3) de développer l'intérêt des chercheurs thais pour les relations Thaïlande-Canada dans le contexte des grands blocs diplomatiques actuels.

Les activités du Programme d'études canadiennes, à ce jour, portent sur la création d'une base documentaire, sur l'organisation de séminaires et de conférences, et sur la publication.

Les domaines de recherche privilégiés par le Programme sont les relations Thaïlande-Canada et la politique canadienne vis à vis du Tiers Monde.

VENEZUELA

Academic exchanges between Canada and Venezuela in the area of Canadian Studies have existed for a number of years: many scholars from Venezuela come to Canada every year to study, research or lecture, and Canadian scholars do the same in Venezuela.

This widespread interest for Canada has recently been institutionalized with the establishment of the Venezuelan Association for Canadian Studies, founded in Caracas on July 22, 1991. Chaired by Professor Alfredo Carpio, a group of scholars designed the By-Laws of the Associacion venezolana

Il y a déjà quelques années que les études canadiennes ont droit de cité dans plusieurs universités du Vénézuela: chaque année, des universitaires vénézueliens viennent au Canada pour y faire des recherches, donner des conférences ou enseigner, et les universitaires canadiens sont également nombreux à se rendre dans les universités vénézueliennes.

Cet intérêt pour le Canada s'est concrétisé récemment par la formation d'une Association vénézuelienne d'études canadiennes. En effet, le 22 juillet 1991, un groupe d'universitaires se réunissaient à Caracas, sous la présidence du professeur Alfredo Carpio, pour adopter la de estudios canadienses (AVEC) and elected a provisional Board of Directors. The Board set to work immediately, establishing the Association's plan of action and organizing the first scholarly Conference, which took place in Caracas, 16-17 January, 1992.

The AVEC is currently considering the publication of a news bulletin, which will also contain scholarly contributions on Canadian society and culture.

Un Conseil d'administration provisoire fut alors nommé, et il commença immédiatement à définir les priorités de l'Association, et à organiser le premier congrès scientifique, qui a eu lieu les 16 et 17 janvier 1992, à Caracas.

L'Association entend publier très prochainement un bulletin de nouvelles, qui fera également place à des travaux de recherche sur la civilisation canadienne.

DIRECTORY OF CANADIANISTS
REPERTOIRE DES CANADIANISTES

This chapter typically provides two types of entries:

- for those canadianists who have returned a questionnaire, the entry will normally include name, first name, sex, date of birth, addresses (both business and home, when available), telephone and fax numbers, language competence and membership in Canadian Studies associations.
- For those who have not returned a questionnaire, the entry normally includes the name, first name, professional address and membership in Canadian Studies associations.

As a rule, we have listed the professional address and the business telephone (T.) and fax (T/F) first, followed by the home address and telephone numbers. When only one address and two telephone numbers are listed, the business number comes first.

The information on linguistic competence is provided in the language used by the respondents. To avoid confusion, the name of the language has not been abbreviated.

Ce chapitre présente deux types de notices individuelles:

- pour les canadianistes ayant renvoyé un questionnaire dûment rempli, la notice comprend le nom, prénom, sexe, date de naissance, adresses (au bureau et à la maison, lorsque le renseignement est disponible), numéros de téléphone et de télécopieur, compétences liguistiques et appartenance à une (des) association(s) d'études canadiennes.
- dans le cas des canadianistes qui n'ont pas renvoyé le questionnaire, la notice comprend le nom, prénom, adresse professionnelle et appartenance à une (des) association(s) d'études canadiennes.

En règle générale, l'adresse professionnelle précède l'adresse privée, et il en va de même pour les numéros de téléphone (T.) et télécopieur (F/T). S'il n'y a qu'une adresse, et deux numéros de téléphone, le premier numéro est généralement celui du bureau.

Les renseignements concernant la compétence linguistique ont été reproduits dans la langue utilisée par les répondants. Afin de rendre l'information la plus claire possible, on n'a pas utilisé d'abréviations.

The acronyms used for indicating membership in Canadian Studies associations are explained below.

Les acronymes utilisés pour identifier les associations d'études canadiennes sont expliqués ci-dessous.
